The Finance Committee is Watching Our Money

By Leighton McLaughlin

The Finance Committee has four areas of responsibility to make sure that Four Seasons stays financially healthy while making sure that the facilities are kept up and the bills are paid.

All final financial decisions are made by the HOA Board. “We make recommendations, they finalize,” said Noel Myers, committee chairperson. “The Board can do three things with what we send them. They can accept it, reject it or send it back to us to change.”

1. The committee sets budgets.

Right now it budgets for front yard maintenance and Springdale maintenance. The master budget is still prepared by builder K. Hovnanian Homes but administered and monitored by the committee and the Board.

Just last month, the committee found where a master budget reduction could be made, which resulted in a $5 drop in membership dues.

Only at build-out will the total budget be in the HOA's hands. Because K. Hovnanian will build no more Springdale homes and will provide front yard maintenance for no new homes, it is finished with them and turned them over to the HOA.

2. The committee reviews all HOA expenditures over $500.

Those are usually large projects like special landscaping and the like. Those payouts have usually come before the committee for approval before being made. “We compare the expense to the budgeted amount and if there is a discrepancy, we ask about it,” said Myers.

3. The committee reviews the monthly financial statement from Euclid Management, the company hired by the builder to manage association business.

Again, expenses are compared to budgeted amounts. Particular attention is paid to reserve accounts to make sure money will be available in the future to maintain the community. Each year an outside firm does a reserve study to ascertain the health of the reserves. It was the last such study that revealed the chance for the dues reduction.

4. The committee makes investment recommendations.

“We have over $4 million on hand and we need to invest it to increase revenue,” said Myers. Right now all HOA money is invested in short-term certificates of deposit. Because of today's extremely low interest rates long-term investments are avoided so the HOA can act quickly if the Federal Reserve should suddenly raise rates.

The association has a very conservative investment policy, said Wayne Staples, treasurer of the Board. “No risky investments, only CDs and U.S. government paper.”

“By far, the majority of income is from the homeowner assessments,” said Myers. But, there is other income: Bistro and Salon rents, rental of Lodge facilities by private parties, fees from homeowners delinquent in paying dues and the investments, he said.

When he was congratulated for overseeing a reduction in dues, Myers said, “We try. We have a good committee.”

FOUR SEASONS SPOTLIGHT

ALL GROWN UP — THE WAGES OF THE GOLDEN YEARS

Veteran tells grandson what's new

By Crochet E. Oldman

As part of an assignment in English class, my grandson Dylan, 13, wrote me a letter and asked what was new in my life.

When I started to respond, I realized that my “new” was about as new to him as a dinosaur egg.

I was going to tell him it was new that I retired after 45 years of working. But that was five years before he was born.

In fact, one of the new things in my life is having grandchildren like him. How new is that? He's been a grandkid all his life and I have six older than he is.

Moving into Four Seasons comes closer to qualifying, even though he was five years old then.

I told him all the new, digital electronic stuff was new to me, but not to him. He operates a smart phone and lap top and iPad and DVD and GPS and anything else that comes along. I remember fumbling badly in my youth to adjust the first, new-fangled television sets — and I consider color a cutting edge innovation.

And my fumbling continues. When I visit his house, I cannot reliably turn on, switch channels or scroll through the directory on the TV. With great tolerance he clicks the necessary buttons and tunes me in.

He originally called me on his smart phone from the Bay Area to see if I would be his pen pal for the semester-long assignment. When I was 13, I would have used the mail. Back then a three-minute, long-distance telephone call cost maybe a hundred times as much as a three-cent stamp.

Today, with a stamp nearing a half dollar and all kinds of free cell phone minutes, he wisely chose the cheapest — and fastest — option. (No wonder the Post Office is in trouble. I hope our pen pal project will give it some needed business.)

I remember when saddle shoes were the new thing, when the Hudson Hornet was a snazzy car, when the Nehru jacket and the leisure suit were high style, when a greasy pompadour was the standard men's hair style. And how about men walking on the moon, splitting the atom, inventing the computer; they are all new to me, but to Dylan they came shortly after the discovery of fire.

So I told him that for a really old guy like me what seems new is really old stuff for a young guy like him.

I hope his generation sees as many new, wonderful things as mine did. But then, I can't say we did real well with a lot of our new stuff.

The atom bomb killed a whole bunch of people and my computer is filled with messages from rascals who want earnest money to qualify me for some mythical fortune. I must delete a trash truck full of unwanted spam every day and college dropout Edward Snowden used his computer to steal half of the National Security Agency's files and share them with terrorists and the intelligence agencies of Russia and China. Nearly every day some distressed lady discovers a creep has Twittered nude pictures of her he hacked from her computer. (Editor's note: the correct term is “Tweeted.” Nice try, old man.)

Television is even a vaster wasteland than when Newton Minow complained about it. It has grown by hundreds more channels broadcasting just more of the same old, moronic shows and dozens of new ads about matters so painfully personal that I blush to mention them.

Hopefully, Dylan's generation will do better with his new stuff than we did with ours.

In time, he is nearly as far removed from World War II as I was from the Civil War. I consider the Civil War ancient history, but World War II is a vivid part of my life, with its impact on my family, with rationing and blackouts and air raid drills. (I was a teen-aged civil defense messenger, with an arm band to identify my importance. I thought I was nearly a Marine Raider.) And there were the neighbors called up for service — some not returning.

I was a couple years too young to serve in the war, and congratulated myself for having wisely planned to avoid all that trouble. Then Korea occurred and creamed my plans for 42 months.

Among my earliest memories is seeing the last, doddering, old Civil War veterans ride by in an open touring car on Decoration Day — now called Memorial Day. Back then the Civil War vets rode, the Spanish American War vets still walked in front of them and the World War I guys, mostly in their 30s, even stayed in step.

I wonder if someday Dylan will see an antique Korean veteran ride by with the Vietnam vets walking in front and the Iraq/Afghanistan guys mostly in step, and think kindly of his Grampa. I hope so — after all, I was his pen pal.

Thanksgiving & Your Pets

Thanksgiving is on the horizon. Everybody gets excited, even our four-legged friends with all of the wonderful food and lots of home visitors.

Let's look at a few things we can keep in mind to make to make Turkey Day a bit more comfortable for us and our furry friends.

This time of year usually comes with a parade of visitors. Some of our family pets may not handle company well, especially some of the small, active children that come to visit. Give your pets an opportunity to leave the activity area by keeping a bedroom door open so they can escape to a quiet spot. It's a good idea to declare these quiet areas off limits for little children. Children innocently forcing themselves on a pet that doesn't want to be bothered can produce an unpleasant situation for everyone.

On the other hand, you may have a real social butterfly who insists on being the center of attention. These pets are fun, but watch out for too much of a good thing. Guests love feeding dogs, and if your pets have any dietary restrictions like food allergies, or have sensitive tummies, keep a small bit of their own dry food or treats out in an attractive dish with a sign "snacks for the dog." When the treats are gone avoid refilling it, as too much of a good thing can be distressing.

And speaking of too much of a good thing: be careful of leftovers for your pet. While many of our dogs can handle a little bit of table treats, Thanksgiving comes with an innate desire to overeat and overfeed. Please be careful and do not overdo it with the greasy gravy and rich dishes. Another tip: when it's not good enough to eat yourself, it's not good for the dog! So if you're cleaning out the refrigerator, bypass the dog bowl and toss the leftovers. ~ Teri DiMarino

Dear Tabby

Dear Tabby: My dog barks every time somebody walks by. He is especially aggressive with people in uniforms. I try to get him to stop but it seems to be getting worse. What can I do?

Signed, My Dog Won't Shut Up!

Dear Shut Up,

As you know, Four Seasons is a very walking friendly place, so you can't expect people to bypass your home just because your dog voices his displeasure at them using "his" sidewalk. First, let's take a look at why a dog barks, especially at uniformed "intruders." It is a natural reaction for a dog to protect his property. A delivery person confidently comes up to your door and rings the bell. Your dog barks. The intruder goes away. This is the biggest ego trip any dog can have! They did their job. They successfully chased away that UPS delivery guy or the FedEx person. This is actually very common canine behavior. But now let's take a look at how we inadvertently encourage this response.

Is there a chance you are yelling at your dog when he barks? If you are yelling for him to stop, you dog doesn't hear "Stop that!" or "Shut up!" He hears "Go, team, go!" You become a cheerleader for his reaction and he is following your lead. You are yelling and he is yelling. Sometimes it's difficult to stop this conduct if it has been allowed to progress into a habit, but you can try. Next time your dog barks at a passerby, calmly tell him "Good boy. That's enough. You chased them away," and really praise him when he stops barking. If it continues, try distracting him with a treat, but avoid yelling. Sometimes throwing something soft at him, such as a rolled up pair of socks, can be a good distraction. When he stops, pile on the praise. Be consistent with your training and perhaps you can form a new habit.

Good luck and I hope this tip works.

Send your pet questions to DearTabby1@aol.com.

BICYCLE SAFETY

Each year in California, more than 100 people are killed and hundreds of thousands more are injured in bicycle collisions. Some bicycle related crashes are connected to the bicyclist's behavior, while others are due to the motorist's lack of attention.

Bicycle riders on public roads have the same rights and responsibilities as motorists and are subject to the same rules and regulations. Refer to the California Driver Handbook to become familiar with these rules.

Motorists must look carefully for bicyclists before turning left or right, merging into bicycle lanes and opening doors next to moving traffic. Respect the right-of-way of bicyclists because they are entitled to share the road with you.

Four Basic Safety Tips

1. Maintain control of your bicycle.
2. Protect yourself. Reduce the risk of head injury by always wearing a helmet.
3. Be visible, alert, and communicate your intentions.
4. Ride with traffic.

Happy cycling.

DOLLARS & SENSE

At the October Board of Directors meeting, the Board approved the following expenses:

1. Year end audit and tax preparation: $1,750.
2. Landscape design plan consultant: $6,500.
3. Double-sided key lock for gate: $2,340.
4. Renovation of Loggia water fountain: $28,500.
5. Lodge interior painting: $37,725.
6. Additional stop signs, street signs and speed limit signs: $3,640.

THANK YOU

As we near the Thanksgiving holiday, I would like to extend my gratitude to all of you — community members, Board members, and staff members. I am grateful for the opportunity to work with each and every one of you.

DAYLIGHT SAVING TIME We are finally getting back the hour we lost on March 9. Daylight Saving Time ends on Sunday, Nov. 2. Turn your clocks back one hour.

THANKSGIVING HOURS Thanksgiving is Nov. 27 this year. Remember that the Lodge hours will be reduced on Wednesday, Nov. 26. The facility will close at 5 pm. On Thanksgiving Day, the Lodge will be open from 8 am until 12 noon only. On Friday, Nov. 28, the Lodge will open at 9 am.

GUEST LIST Please remember to update your guest list at the Potrero Gate. If your guest is not listed, the attendant will have to hold up the entrance process until you can be telephoned. This is not only annoying to your guest, but to the long line of other non-residents waiting for entrance to the holiday feasts.

EMERGENCY INFO. This is also a good time to update your emergency information at the Lodge desk. Family situations sometimes change. Be sure that any alteration in your emergency contacts is reflected on the Euclid Management records. That could save precious time in obtaining assistance for residents.

GENERAL ELECTION The California General Election is being held on Tuesday, Nov. 4. Our mailboxes have been full of ads for candidates. We should also have received the Official Voter Information Guide and the Supplemental Voter Information Guide. Be sure to read both of them so that you can be an informed voter on the propositions as well as the candidate elections.

HOLIDAY HOME TOUR The Four Seasons Holiday Home Tour is scheduled for Saturday, Dec. 13. If you are interested in showing off the special holiday finery of your home, please pick up an application from the Lodge front desk by Saturday, Nov. 29. If you would like more information about the event, call Teri DiMarino-Davidson, (951) 769-4345.

LGBT PRIDE FESTIVAL The 2014 Greater Palm Springs LGBT Pride Festival is being held in Palm Springs on Nov. 8 and 9. A group of Four Seasons residents and your Rainbow Group would like to invite you to go and enjoy it. The Festival is held on both days at Sunrise Park in Palm Springs Stadium; the parade is on Sunday on E. Ramon Road along historic Palm Canyon Drive. If you are interested and would like more details, please see pspride.org for Festival information, parade route and spectator advice.

BOARD MEETING The BOD General Session will be held at 1 pm on Nov. 13. Plan to take a few minutes of your time to attend. Hopefully the Board will update us on the status of the Aquatic Center as well as other plans.

RELAX The months of November and December can be quite intense with many activities and expectations. Take a few minutes to relax and enjoy. Turn the months into "holidays" instead of "holidaze."

HA HA A smile for today from an Internet friend: "My grandpa started walking five miles a day when he was 60. Now he's 97 years old and we have no idea where he is."

Ham & Bean Soup

Ham and bean soup is a classic combination that will be perfect for the cooler months ahead. This hearty version is made with Great Northern beans that are gently cooked with fragrant vegetables and herbs to a creamy tenderness, with chopped bacon and ham added toward the end. Enjoy.

Course: Main Meals • Servings: 8-16 • Makes: 4 quarts • Total Time: 2¼ hrs., plus overnight soaking time for the beans

Preparation Time: 10 min • Cooking Time: 2 hrs. • Level of Difficulty: Easy

Each of 16 servings: 281 calories; 15 grams protein; 20 grams carbohydrates; 5 grams fiber; 15 grams fat; 5 grams saturated fat; 34 mg cholesterol; 1 gram sugar; 907 mg sodium.

INGREDIENTS

1 lb. dried Great Northern beans
1 lg. yellow onion, finely diced
6 celery ribs, diced
2 tomatoes, chopped
7 cloves garlic, whole
2½ Tbsp. Herbes de Provence
3 bay leaves
1 lg. carrot
1 lb. bacon, chopped
1 lb. ham, diced
Salt and pepper

DIRECTIONS

1. The day before making the soup, place the beans in a nonreactive pot with enough water to cover the beans by 2 inches. Soak the beans overnight.
2. The next day, add the onion, celery, tomatoes, garlic, Herbes de Provence and bay leaves to the pot with the beans and soaking liquid (add additional water as needed to keep the beans submerged). Simmer the soup for 1½ hours or until the beans are tender, stirring occasionally and adding additional water, if needed, to keep the beans submerged.
3. While the soup is cooking, render the bacon in a separate pot until crisp. Stir in the diced ham and remove from heat.
4. When the beans are just tender, stir in the bacon and ham, along with the rendered bacon fat. Add additional water if desired to thin, and season with 1½ teaspoons salt and 1 teaspoon pepper, or to taste. Simmer ½ hour, stirring occasionally.

Activities Director Corner

By Cindy Graves, Activities Director

November is here and my head is spinning that we've nearly burned through an entire year already. We've had some good times together and more good times ahead for a 2014 grand finale.

Mark your calendar on Tuesday, Nov. 10 if you want to be sure to get your New Year's Eve tickets. We are growing as a community and we only have 240 spaces for our last dinner dance event of the year. The theme will be "A Roaring 20s New Year" (check the Social Committee's article for more details) and it's going to be a blast, I hope I get to see you there.

Nov. 11 is a special day of remembering our Four Seasons Hometown Heroes. Those heroes are the large group of individuals in this community who have served our country in one of the branches of the military. We're very patriotic around here and our veterans mean a lot to us. Please come down to the little "Highland Springs Park" off of Four Seasons Circle (as you go up the hill, near the new Aquatic Center) and join with us at 11 am for a Veterans Day program. We will have a Color Guard, and a simple but meaningful service with music. We will then meet back at the Lodge for some interesting displays and refreshments. This is just one small way we can remember those who gave the ultimate sacrifice as well as say thank you to those who served on our behalf.

The long awaited Holiday Craft Boutique will be Saturday, Nov. 22 from 9 am to 2 pm. We will have a full house of beautiful and unique items to help you with your holiday shopping. This is such a great way to jump start all those warm and festive feelings. This event is open to the public, so be sure to get there early. There will also be tons of door prizes given away as an extra incentive to enjoy the occasion.

Finally, our Four Seasons Holiday Extravaganza will be two nights, on Friday, Dec. 5 and Saturday, Dec. 6 in the Lodge Ballroom. Each evening will present the same holiday show and choral program as well as dessert refreshments. The play this year is called "Uh-Oh — Here Comes Christmas" and will be put on by the CAST Players. Our own Four Seasons Singers will have us humming and tapping our toes to their lovely musical selections. There will be only 350 tickets given out for each show. You can stop by the Lodge desk to pick up yours on the week of Monday, Dec. 1 until the nights of the performances. These are first come-first served performances, so try not to wait until the last minute. We don't want you to be disappointed if your preferred night is full.

I also wanted to let you know that Toby Davis will be starting a Mexican Train Dominoes group. If you are interested in learning more about this group, call Toby (in the Directory) or just sign up at the Lodge on the Interest Clipboard.

See you around the Lodge and have a wonderful Thanksgiving!

DID YOU KNOW?

By Bobbie Eckel

DID YOU KNOW THAT NOV. 3 IS SANDWICH DAY?

Although we do not know for sure how the day was created or when it was first celebrated, English history ascribes the day to John Montagu, the 4th Earl of Sandwich. Apparently the Earl was a heavy gambler and spent many hours in the gambling parlors of London. Unwilling to take the time to have a regular meal, the Earl in 1762 started putting meat between two slices of bread so he could continue to gamble as he ate. Celebrate your favorite sandwich on this day.

DID YOU KNOW THAT NOV. 15 IS AMERICA RECYCLES DAY?

The special day was proclaimed by President George W. Bush on Nov. 15, 2004, although the day was actually created by Kevin Tuerff and Valerie David of EnviroMedia in 1997. It was based on the Texas Recycles Day program and brought together groups who were concerned with recycling and reusing our resources. The day not only encourages recycling, it encourages using products made from recycled material. The population is asked to look around at their homes and working environments and identify ways to practice saving our natural resources. The Boy Scouts of America use the slogan for this day: "Reduce, Re-use, and Recycle."

DID YOU KNOW THAT NOV. 28 IS RED PLANET DAY? The day commemorates the launch of the Spacecraft Mariner 4 on Nov. 28, 1964. The spacecraft came within 6,118 miles of Mars on July 14, 1965. Mars is the 7th largest planet, about 1/10th the mass of Earth; it is the fourth planet from the sun and was named for Ares, the God of War. Scientists are particularly fascinated by this planet although successful attempts to explore have been few. As of Aug. 6, 2012, two rovers have landed on the surface. Three orbiters are surveying the planet now; two additional orbiters are en route as of Nov., 2013. To add to your knowledge of the Red Planet, read about the Mars One Project, a not-for-profit foundation which plans to establish a permanent human settlement on Mars. You might even want to participate...

DID YOU KNOW THAT NOV. 5 IS GUY FAWKES DAY OR GUNPOWDER DAY?

The two names are actually for the same day, just a different focus. It all started in 1603 when James I ascended to the throne of England. Because he was a dedicated Protestant, the new king forbade the Catholics of the country from practicing their religion. Catholics who did not convert were punished. A group of Catholics, led by the mercenary Guy Fawkes, rebelled and plotted to blow up the British Houses of Parliament when the king and his supporters were in the buildings. Their plot was uncovered on Nov. 5, 1605; 36 barrels of gunpowder were found in the basement. Guy Fawkes was arrested as he was about to ignite the gunpowder. He was tortured until he confessed and was then executed. Effigies of Guy Fawkes are still burned around some bonfires on Nov. 5 in England.

DID YOU KNOW THAT THE THIRD THURSDAY OF NOVEMBER IS THE GREAT AMERICAN SMOKEOUT DAY?

The day was created by the American Cancer Society in 1977 in an effort to reduce the health problems created by the use of tobacco. If you are struggling with nicotine addiction, Nov. 20 is another incentive to give up the "butt." Breaking the habit is not easy, and often takes repeated efforts, but the health benefits to the smoker and those around the smoker are worth the effort.

District Delegate Candidates Sought

By Leighton McLaughlin

The procedure for electing an HOA Board homeowner member begins this month with selection of a nominating committee to find candidates for district delegate.

Once elected, the eight delegates cast the votes that elect the Board member. The delegates act much like members of the Electoral College in U.S. Presidential elections — with a big difference. The delegates from any districts that fail to have a majority of households vote, can cast all the district's votes as they see fit.

Homeowners interested in serving in this vitally important role are encouraged to apply before the deadline in January. The table to find your district is to the right. There has been realignment and your district may well have changed.

A delegate and alternate will be elected from each district. The alternate acts only in the absence of the delegate.

One of the three homeowner seats on the Board will be open in the election — that of Member Loren DuChesne, who is serving as Vice President/Secretary. President Jacque Sneddon and Treasurer Wayne Staples each have one more year on their terms. A four-member majority of the Board is appointed by builder K. Hovnanian Homes. That will continue until build-out, when all seven members will be elected from the homeowners.

The exact dates for the election process will be set at the December Board meeting, but the general outline is set: Delegate candidates must file in mid-January, a “meet the delegate candidates forum” will be held in February as will the delegates’ election. The deadline to file as a candidate for the Board will be in March and ballots will be mailed to homeowners that month. In April the votes will be counted and the delegates will cast their ballots at the Annual Meeting shortly after that.

VETERANS DAY 2014

Pride. It's something every veteran feels when thinking about their military service. It's also felt by those families who have lost family members who served their country in wartime or in peace. We need to step back a moment from our everyday lives to consider what veterans have done to allow us the freedoms we have today. The military has been the bulwark for our nation since its founding and continues to be so today. The strength of this group is only possible through the service of men and women who step forward to be a part of this giant and varied web of protection around our nation.

Think for a moment why millions and millions of people from around the world want to come to America. True, it's an issue that has great social and political implications which may be burdensome, but there is a big reason why all these people want to come to our country. It's the freedom to pursue hopes and dreams for a better future for themselves and their children; to achieve great things that are simply closed to them in other nations. Those of us who have traveled to other countries around the world see this first hand and know that there's no better place to live than here in America.

While we do have many great institutions of learning, a vibrant economy, a solid financial system and medical care and services second to none, it is the military that has always been the one institution that has kept us safe, provided the deterrent against would-be enemies and given all of our other citizens the freedom and security to live their lives and achieve their dreams.

We too easily take for granted these freedoms that others yearn for. So I urge our fellow Four Seasons residents to take the time to thank our veterans on Veterans Day for their services to our nation. Some of our local veterans may be seen on the Four Seasons Roll of Honor website which shows photos and short recaps of their military service. The site is accessed through the clubs and groups section of the Four Seasons Homeowners website. All veterans are encouraged to be on the Roll of Honor and may sign up at the Lodge. ~ Dick Bentley, Former Captain, U.S. Army

HOLIDAY HOME TOUR

Join us Saturday, Dec. 13 to tour some of the loveliest homes in Four Seasons. All will be decorated in holiday finery and the homeowners are anxious to show them off.

Wristbands are $5 each and will be available the day of the tour. Homes will be open from 10 am to 4 pm. Are you interested in showing off your home on this year's Holiday Home Tour? Do you exceptionally decorate your home for the winter holidays? Have you uniquely customized and/or decorated your home?

If you have any questions about participating in this event, please contact Teri DiMarino-Davidson at (951) 769-4345 for more information or pick up an application at the front desk in the Lodge. Deadline for applications is Saturday, Nov. 29.

It is not necessary for your home to be totally decorated at the time of application. Proceeds from the tour benefit the Event Systems Committee ~ Teri DiMarino-Davidson

WINTER WISH

It's that time of year again... Winter Wish. For new residents of Four Seasons, Winter Wish is a Christmas gift and food program for the families of the school children of Beaumont.

The children's names are turned in by their teachers and are then checked out by the Winter Wish committee. After all names are cleared two names tags are created for each child, one for a toy and one for an item of clothing. These name tags are then placed on a small Christmas tree that has been set up in businesses around the community at which point local citizens take a tag, buy, wrap and return the gift to those businesses for pick up by the committee for distribution in December. There are also boxes set up for donations of food that are also given to each family.

I am proud to say that our residents have been very generous in giving. Last year we took over 140 gift tags and many gave more than the one gift required per tag.

This year the gift tags and food donation box should be in the Lodge lobby by Nov. 3 (the last day to return gift to the Lodge is Dec. 6). I know the children of Beaumont can count on us again for our support. ~ Melody Seewooster

EMERGENCY PREPAREDNESS PROGRAM (EPP)

The Emergency Preparedness Committee has gone online. Thanks to Eric Zarr, Euclid Management Assistant Manager, you can now access EPC and EPP documents and important links to outside resources. The most significant document you will find is the Resident's Emergency Handbook which everyone received in the mail or as a new resident.

The Resident's Emergency Handbook is a wonderful guide to help prepare for and deal with emergencies such as earthquakes, hazardous material spills, wildfires and severe weather. The first steps in getting prepared are to read the handbook, make a plan, and fill in the medical and personal information card (pages 21-22) and emergency contact card (page 23).

To access our page, log in to www.fourseasonsbeaumont.com then click on "Board and Committees" on the left side of the page, then on the Emergency Preparedness Committee title in the Committee Members section. New information will be added on an ongoing basis, so check this page frequently to stay updated about the Emergency Preparedness Committee and Emergency Preparedness Program. ~ Avi Greene

WILDFIRES

We are now in wildfire season. At our October meeting, the Red Cross presenters provided the following handout to help guide a response to wildfires:

WILDFIRE SAFETY

- Listen to local radio and television stations for updated emergency information
- Back your car into the garage or park it in an open space facing the direction of escape

- People living near the fire should stay informed about the situation and be ready to leave their homes at a moment's notice
- Have your "go" bag ready for immediate evacuation
- Be cautious driving in the area - winds can unexpectedly cause poor visibility on the roads
- Drivers should also watch for downed power lines and poles
- Listen and watch for air quality reports and health warnings about smoke
- People with health conditions need to take extra precautions

SMOKE FROM THE FIRE

- Keep indoor air clean by closing windows and door to prevent outside smoke from getting in
- Use the recycle or re-circulate mode on the air conditioner in your home or car
- If you do not have air conditioning and it is too hot to stay inside with closed windows, seek shelter elsewhere

HEALTH CONCERNS

- When smoke levels are high, do not use anything that burns and adds to indoor air pollution, such as candles, fireplaces and gas stoves
- Do not vacuum because it stirs up particles that are already inside your home
- If you have asthma or another lung disease, follow your health care provider's advice and seek medical care if your symptoms worsen

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

As we approach New Year's Eve, it is time to give out a few details about our most popular event of the year.

First of all let me say tickets sell out fast, so if you have a special table you want you had better get your tickets early. This is one affair where we allow only eight people per table due to the more formal place settings. You can buy a full table of eight or we will place you at a table with others until that table is full. This is done due to the cost. The theme this year is 'The Roaring Twenties' and we are hoping we can do justice to this most opulent period of time.

Anne Taylor will be catering the buffet and you will have a choice of:

- 1) Asian pear salad, orange glazed pork tenderloin w/ roasted sweet potatoes and vegetables
- 2) Garden salad, grilled herb filet mignon w/roasted potatoes and vegetables
- 3) Baked ziti with roasted vegetables and red wine reduction

All selections will have assorted rolls and butter and dessert will be chocolate raspberry torte cake with ice cream. Please make your dinner choice when buying your tickets as you will be unable to make changes.

We will also be having our favorite DJ Tony Zambrana who plays all the music we love to dance to, plus he throws in a few extras. Doors will open at 6 pm and dinner will begin at 7 pm. Tickets go on sale Nov. 10 at 8 am and the last day to buy them is Dec. 22 (if there are any left). As I said earlier please buy your tickets early; every year we have people come at the last minute wanting tickets and it is just not possible. There will be a waiting list on the off chance that someone will buy a ticket and then be unable to use it, but that is taking a risk of getting a ticket. Ticket price for the last eight years for the New Year's Eve gala has always been $50 but due to the raising costs of everything, we find that we have to raise the price of tickets for this gala event to $60 per person. ~ Melody Seewooster

COMMUNICATIONS COMMITTEE

PURPOSE OF THE BREEZE: The Breeze is a monthly magazine that provides information of interest to residents of the Four Seasons community.

The Breeze publishes committee, club and group reports, calendars of events, stories and photos relating to issues and events within the community — both upcoming and recently completed — and other articles deemed of general interest to community residents. It does not publish letters to the editor or editorials — in other words, it does not take or advocate positions on issues before the community. The place for such advocacy is before the HOA Board or its committees.

Also, the Breeze does not carry obituaries, only death notices under the heading "Farewell to Friends." Forms for the notices are available at the Lodge desk.

Residents are encouraged to submit articles and photos, subject to approval by the committee. Submissions must be of general interest to the community and may not contain libel, privacy invasion, attacks on individuals or copyright violations. Anonymous submissions will not be considered. Articles can be no longer than 400 words. Exceptions will be made, at the committee's discretion, for events of unusual importance.

The Four Seasons website adheres to the same guidelines, except that space is not as limited as it is in the Breeze. Longer items can be considered for inclusion there.

There is an exception to the advocacy rule. The Davis-Sterling Act, which governs common interest developments like Four Seasons, requires the Breeze to publish residents' opinions on issues that will be brought to a vote across the community. In that event, the Breeze will publish opinions on both sides of the matter. ~ Communications Committee

ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

Welcome to all our new neighbors. Whether you have purchased a new home and need landscaping or own an existing home and want to change your yard, remember to submit your form and plans to the committee for approval.

Just a reminder that before you place a satellite dish on your home, approval by this committee is needed.

We have an opening on our committee. If you are interested, come to our next meeting. You must be a homeowner to be considered for a position on the committee.

We meet on the first and third Wednesday of the month at 9:30 am at the Lodge. Anyone who is interested in seeing our committee at work is welcome to come and observe at one of our meetings. ~ Marsha Gormly

LANDSCAPE COMMITTEE

For those who grew up on farms or in a rural area, brown was the color of autumn. Mother Nature was making her last hurrah on her annual color palette before cleaning it off and turning it white so the New Year could start afresh. At Four Seasons this year we have more brown than usual (it's not UPS deliveries) due to water drought restrictions. We are all optimistic that plentiful rainfall will soon lead to relaxation of these measures.

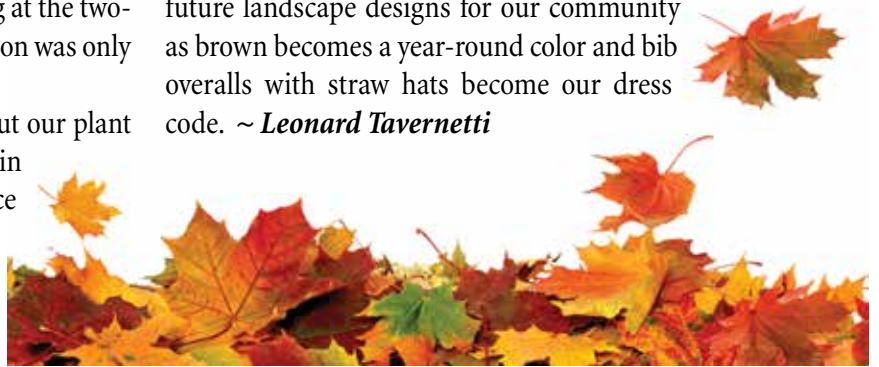

Our landscape water consumption for the period Aug. 15 to Sept. 15 was down 41 percent from 2013. Statewide, Californians reduced their consumption by 11.5 percent. We did have three rains between Aug. 4 and Sept. 8 that likely account for most of our reduction since the restrictions did not commence until mid-September. However, looking at the two-month figures (August and September) our reduction was only 1 percent.

Still, this is good news for water conservation but our plant life is now visibly affected by the water diet and in November a more stringent reduction will place more stress without a few good rains, even with shorter days and cooler temperatures. Odd numbered houses will be restricted to Monday and Friday and even numbered houses to Tuesday and Saturday (this is a change).

This is the time of year when we fertilize our grass and in order not to burn the grass, immediate watering for a few minutes is necessary. This is a one-time violation and BCVWD is aware of our action.

The new community facility at the top of the hill should be turned over to the HOA prior to the end of the year. Since the landscape plans were approved prior to the drought restrictions, we will likely inherit thirsty plants that we will not be able to water without violating these water restrictions. Our Board will have to make some tough decisions as to the future landscape designs for our community as brown becomes a year-round color and bib overalls with straw hats become our dress code. ~ Leonard Tavernetti

SAFETY & FACILITIES

At our October meeting, we covered a number of items in maintenance. A few of these projects are of interest.

There is an upgrade to the Wi-Fi installation at the Lodge. The project is nearly complete and should enhance computer operations in and around the Lodge.

There is a painting project at the Lodge. This is nearly complete and this project should enhance the interior views.

There is a fountain overhaul project that has gone to the Board of Directors for approval.

The committee covered, under new business, items for bids in pool renovation and a tennis court windscreen.

As the facility ages, there is a continued need for maintenance. The general condition of our 10 year old Lodge is in good working order due to regular upkeep.

The committee is proud to have Jan Bushmann as a new member and her service to the committee and the community is most appreciated.

Dues Reduced For Most Four Seasons Residents

The HOA Board has reduced association dues. For most homeowners, the reduction will be $5. For Springdale owners – with their condominium arrangement – the reduction will be smaller, offset by an increase in their maintenance assessment, depending on unit size.

HOA Treasurer Wayne Staples, Board liaison to the Finance Committee, explained that the reserve funds for maintenance and repairs were 140 percent of what was needed. The excess was discovered in the annual reserve fund study done by an outside firm. “We hired a new firm this year and we are much happier with them than the old one,” he said.

He said, “We don’t need this much money at this point, but we want to keep the percent in the reserve the same, just not have it increase.” The fund needs to continue receiving revenue or it “will not cover all the work that needs to be done over 20 years.”

The committee then discussed how to benefit homeowners best. “Whatever we did, we didn’t want it to last just one year. We want to do it for several years. We don’t know how many, but more than one,” he said.

The committee recommended the Board reduce dues by $5 a month per household. The Board adopted the recommendation at its September meeting.

“Now in the Springdales, the situation was just the opposite,” said Staples. “They were funded at only 76 percent of what was needed so we determined to raise their assessment by 7 percent per household.”

That means the Springdale owners will not receive the full $5 reduction. It will be partly offset by a $2.82 hike for Springdale One owners, by $3.33 for Springdale Two, and $4.22 for Springdale Three.

He said there was also a no-cost change for the 556 homes whose front yards are maintained by the HOA. In that case the reserve was at 137 percent, but the operating budget was slightly in the red. “We had been putting $1,000 a month into the reserves, so what we did was transfer $500 of that and put in the operating budget. There will be no increase for those homes in the $52 a month they pay for front yard maintenance.”

The basic dues, then, will fall from $215 a month to $210 — with the front yard people paying the extra $52 and the Springdales paying the condominium fees based on their home size.

The Board had to get permission from builder K. Hovnanian Homes to lower the dues that far. Under an agreement with the builder, the dues were allowed to vary from $215 to $243. The committee kept the dues at the lowest level “through good management,” said Staples, then saw they could go below that. K. Hovnanian quickly agreed. ~ Leighton McLaughlin

FINANCE COMMITTEE

At our September meeting, we reviewed the August financial statements. The following are significant items: Net Income Year-to-Date was $116,077 and total reserves were $4,473,072. The Accounts Receivable (delinquencies) was $49,870. Our total HOA expenses for August (excluding reserve allocations) were $257,582. This was over budget by $1,223. The Front Yard Cost Center expenses for August 2014 were under the monthly budget by $663. The Springdale Cost Center Expenses for August 2014 were over the monthly budget by $495. There were four CD renewals reviewed and a recommendation to renew at the best prevailing rate not to exceed six months was sent to the board. There were seven vendor proposals presented and sent to the Board with recommendations for approval. Accounts Receivable update by Wayne Staples stated 15 current homeowners are in arrears, approximately 1.27 percent of the total. Only eight of those represent significant issues. Several large balances are being actively worked.

Our next meeting will be Nov. 25 at 1 pm in the Lodge Conference Room. All homeowners are encouraged to attend. ~ Noel Myers

COUNTER CULTURE CINEMA

The Counter Culture Cinema Club has twice-monthly screenings of movies you may not find at your Cineplex: indie films, foreign films, documentaries, etc. Check us out.

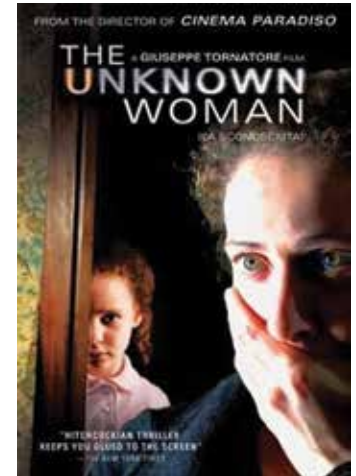

Our first November screening, on Sunday, Nov. 9 at 6 pm, is the film Ida (Poland 2013, 82 minutes, English subtitles). Here is a brief description from IMDB.com: "Poland, 1962. Anna, an orphan brought up by nuns in the convent, is a novice. She has to see Wanda, the only living relative, before she takes her vows. Wanda tells Anna about her Jewish roots. Both women start a journey not only to find their family's tragic story, but to see who they really are and where they belong. They question what they used to believe in. Both of them are trying to go on living but only one eventually can."

Our second November screening, on Sunday, Nov. 23 at 6 pm, is the film The Unknown Woman (Italy 2006, 118 minutes, English subtitles). Here is a brief description from IMDB.com: "A Ukrainian woman named Irena calculatedly insinuates herself into the lives of a young, affluent Italian family. Stopping at nothing to become the couple's trusted maid and the beloved nanny to their fragile young daughter, Irena risks everything in her quest to uncover the truth about the family. Like an intricately constructed jigsaw puzzle, The Unknown Woman reveals piece by piece the enigma of Irena's past."

All of our screenings are followed by lively discussion about the film; we'd love to have you join us. The Lodge Theatre has very limited seating, so if you're interested in our screenings, come early. We hope to see you there. Please note that all films announced are subject to availability. If you have any questions about the Counter Culture Cinema Club or want to recommend a film, please email Micki Rosen at michelesrosen@gmail.com.

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURE CLUB

Hello everyone. Join us in the Ballroom for our Christmas Dinner/Dance on Saturday, Dec. 13 from 5 to 9:30 pm. We will have live music, a 5-star dinner, dancing, great prizes and 50/50 raffle. Our Ballroom will be transformed into a Christmas wonderland. It will be the Christmas memory you will cherish forever.

We opened up ticket reservations in September and we have sold out. We have decided that since we got such great response so early, we will keep a wait list. If you have a ticket and an emergency arises, and you cannot come, you can resell your ticket to the next person on the wait list. "Murphy's Law" is always at work, so we know this will happen, you will not lose your money and someone else can attend.

If you are interested in being put on the wait list, please call Roxie Elliott at (951) 769-2517.

The multicultural evening of Christian & Gospel Music is also coming together. If you have a talent — singing, playing the piano, praise dancing, etc. — come and be a part of this event. There's still time to sign up. The date is Sunday, Feb. 8, 2015. It is a free event. All of the community is welcome. All in our community are encouraged to share their talent. Help make this event an evening to renew your spirit and warm your soul. If you are interested in performing, please contact Cookie Bonner, (951) 769-7679. More to come.

Our October meeting was great. We had super attendance and had a couple of guest speakers: Mark Orozco, the gentleman running for City Council, shared some important information with us about our city and his views of what he wanted to achieve if he were elected. We also had Dr. Jameelah Medina, Ph.D. She give us some great information on alternative therapies to help us fight inflammation, allergies, etc. with natural products instead of drugs. Dorothy Cole, an AACC member, invited all of us to a fund raiser Pancake Breakfast on Nov. 8 at Applebee's in Beaumont from 8 to 10 am. The 501c charity was set up by her family in honor of her daughter to help encourage education and fight cancer.

Our next meeting is Dec. 2. We meet in the Card Room at 6 pm. Contact Betty Ann James (951) 572-5538 for more information. We are striving to be a productive part of our community. We welcome new members, come and join us. ~

KNITTING & CROCHETING

Our group participated in the Art Show on Sept. 5 showing several of our best works. It was fun and had a nice response. We have decided on a new project for the coming year — making children's blankets for the Highway Patrol in Beaumont. The officers carry them in their cars and give them to children involved in accidents, etc. when they are in the temporary care of the officer. The blankets are a gift and theirs to keep. The CHP needs these mostly for the winter months, but they are always welcome. This will probably be an ongoing project along with any other that we decide we can manage.

As always we meet in the Craft Room every Tuesday from 10 to about 11:30 am. ~ Dorothy Payne

MACHINE QUILTING

We are starting Christmas projects, as you can see in the photo to the right. So come on down on Sundays at 1 pm at the Craft Rom. ~ Kathy Spallino

AMATEUR RADIO CLUB

The governing body for amateur radio in the US, the ARRL, is celebrating its first 100 years. The convention in Hartford, Conn. addressed the second century of radio with some interesting projections.

An agreement between FEMA (Federal Emergency Management Agency) and the ARRL was signed. A Nobel laureate addressed the next century of ham radio and legislation that could change the landscape of private land use and impose restrictions on antennas.

Coordination with FEMA and licensed radio ops will enhance the cooperation between a major government agency and the thousands of amateur radio organizations dedicated to responding to emergencies.

Locally, the Beaumont EOC (Emergency Operation Center), with the cooperation of Beaumont City Hall is complete and has been in operation for two months. The EOC was made possible through the office of Rick Cook, emergency coordinator for Beaumont, and funding via another government agency. Work is proceeding with the City of Banning and we hope the Banning EOC will soon be reestablished.

Since local ham radio operators established a radio center at San Geronio Hospital, the Pass Area has now matured into a coordinated radio approach to handling emergency communications.

At Four Seasons, we have been training residents to program the FRS radios (Family Radio Service) for communication. Future training sessions will also focus on protocol and handling messages in emergency situations. We will also establish an information channel so residents can receive current information during an emergency. A FRS channel for any resident to call in will also be established.

So join the radio group, participate in emergency communication and have fun.

The 4 Seasons radio club meets at 10 am in the Lodge on the last Friday of the month. Our next meeting is Nov. 28. Our website is w6fsb.com. Come to our meetings or join us for one of the Wednesday night nets. ~ Dick Van Bree, W6RVB, Club President.

TASTE D'VINE

Many of us would confess to possessing a sweet tooth (or two), but when we mix the words "sweet" and "wine" we tend to get a bit nervous. There is no reason to be nervous, there is a whole world of dessert wines that can enhance and compliment your holiday dinners and encourage lingering at the table. By tradition, more dessert wine is sold for Thanksgiving Day dinner than for any other meal of the year.

The Taste d' Vine Wine Club is excited to bring you an evening of Port Wine and Sherry, two of the most popular after dinner or dessert wines, for tasting at our November meeting on the third Thursday, Nov. 20 at 6 pm in the Ballroom. Bring an appetizer, such as bread or crackers and cheese, your own favorite bottle of wine if you wish, and a glass or two for tasting and sharing. We will provide the chocolate. Members $5, guests $8. ~ Gracy Luna

CAMERA CLUB

We meet the third Tuesday of each month at 6:30 pm in the Craft Room at the Lodge. Our November meeting will be Nov. 18. Visitors are always welcome. We invite all photographers, regardless of skill level, to join us for our regular meetings and field trips. Members are always eager to help and teach. We discuss photography, photo software, hardware, and related subjects of interest. On a voluntary basis, members offer their photographs for critique, which is a great learning experience for all. Our alternative photo project is ongoing (i.e. we bring a picture of a specific genre we all agree on).

For the October meeting, the assignment was to bring an HDR (High Dynamic Range) picture photographed according to the specifications we discussed in the September meeting. As always, this is an optional assignment. The members do not have to do it, but it is a great learning experience if they do. Lots of really neat and creative pictures were presented.

Last month, I wrote that our chairperson, George Johnson, is planning to start a series of programs on the basics of digital photography. We already discussed how a digital camera works and HDR photography. Following topics will be panoramas, then HDR panos (yes, this is not a typo), point and shoot camera operation, post processing, composition, and many more topics. Stay tuned for dates and times.

It is hard to believe it will soon be Thanksgiving. That means lots of photographs which we'll be discussing in our future meetings. Hope to see you soon.

BUNCO

This month Bunco will be on Nov. 14 and Nov. 28 (the day after Thanksgiving). I can't believe I am saying Thanksgiving already. Let the craziness begin. Try not to get all caught up in the rush — come out and relax and have some fun playing Bunco with us. Bring a friend or neighbor and meet us in the card room at 1 pm sharp. Don't forget to grab a drink at Smitty's or maybe even lunch beforehand. See you there. ~ Suzanne Roldan & Cheryl Burke

MAH JONGG

Everybody is welcome to join us for fun Mondays at 1 pm in the Bistro. Beginners as well as seasoned players can join the fun. We usually have several tables of three, four or five players and someone is always available to teach or assist those who are new to the game or those who haven't played in many years. A current Mah Jongg card is required but you can borrow or copy one until you are sure you want to invest the $8 in it. You do not have to own a Mah Jongg set to join the fun, so come on out! ~ Barbara Goodreau

PINOCHLE

Pinochle is an exciting card game where you bid and bluff to name trump and take control of the game. This game is played with a double deck of special cards of ace through 10 against other aficionados, to tease your mind, and keep you sharp. Come join the game on Wednesday and Fridays from 9 am to 12 pm in the Card Room. Newbies and oldies are welcome for fun and socializing. Info., George Soeten, (951) 797-0254. ~ George Soeten

BRIDGE

Join us Mondays for the game of Bridge in the Lodge Card Room at 12 noon. All levels of players are welcome. Bridge gives our brain some much needed exercise and we can all use that at our age. We play party type bridge where we rotate partners after five or six hands. This enables you to meet and play with different people. Since we play round-robin style, most of us use Standard American as convention of choice. Some do try other conventions, but only if both parties agree up front. All of us play at different levels and are learning how to play the game better (practice makes us better).

Some of the previous students have learned enough that they now sit in and play. If you are interested in learning the game or have questions please call Helen at (951) 845-9312. We will be glad to help you learn the basics of the game and hope that you will join us to either learn how to play, watch, or play the game of bridge.

Congratulations to Lylia Puckett and partner (me) for bidding and making a grand slam. This is what every bridge players wants to achieve and it does not come along very often. ~ Bill Guy

CANASTA #1

Join us for an afternoon of friendship and fun while playing a game of Hand and Foot Canasta. We meet in the Card Room every Thursday afternoon, 1:15 to 4 pm. Each week you may play with someone different, giving you an opportunity to meet other Four Seasons residents and old friends who enjoy an afternoon of "cool" cards. Plus, the Bistro is just down the hall if you would like a snack or a cold drink. We supply the cards so all you have to bring is your body and the desire to have a little fun. If you don't know how to play we are always happy to set up a teaching table and by the time the afternoon is over you will have mastered the game. All you have to do is show up and leave the rest to us. ~ Melody Seewoster

PAN

We are looking for players, substitute players, and people who are interested in learning the game. I am happy to teach anyone who wishes to learn the game, either individually or in a small group, your home or mine. Pan is a card game, much on the order of gin in some respects, and played with up to eight people at a table. It is played by both men and women, so men are very welcome as well as women. The game can be played in the day, evening, in a room in the Lodge or in private homes. If you are interested, please call me, Linda Mendelson, at (951) 941-9100 or email me at Goldtoy@earthlink.net and I will answer any questions you may have. As all card games, it is played with both skill and luck. ~ Linda Mendelson

CHAVURAH & HAVDALAH CLUB

What a great group we have! We're comprised of many types of individuals who have an interest in sharing our love, knowledge, and interest in Jewish culture, food, entertainment, and social gatherings. Whether you have a long heritage, are married into, want to reconnect, or are curious about Judaism — the backbone of Christianity — we're the group for you.

We have no regularly scheduled meetings or happenings, but rather, center our activities around holidays and special events on the calendar. Examples of the activities we've had include a Hava Nagila Movie Night, Chanukah Dinner and Gift Exchange, Passover Get-2-gether, information meetings, Home Tour Event, Harvest Festival Fruit Exchange, etc. Our events are in English, but we interject Hebrew blessings and rituals, and celebrate Havdalah (the end of the Sabbath). We hold our meetings at the Lodge and in private Four Seasons homes.

We welcome new members, and look forward to more stimulating activities to celebrate the joy of Judaism.

If you are interested in joining our club and sharing your talents, please fill out a form (in the Lobby) and return it to the front desk. We hope to hear from you by emailing chavurah.time@aol.com. For more information, contact Toni Finer or Dr. Zee Knapp directly. ~ Dr. Zee Knapp

DOMINOES

The player with the most wins, 11, for the month of July was Solomon Hayes. Solomon has been a resident since 2006 and retired from a career in sales. He decided on fish for the entrée of the month.

Solomon and his wife Thelma have been married for 45 years and they have been a very solid, active couple. They both love to travel to interesting places and sing karaoke music. For over 40 years Solomon has been a DJ for private parties.

The player with the most wins for the month of August was Carl Carson. He won a total of 13 games for the month. Carl is married with three adult children — two daughters and one son — and he is a proud grandfather with four grandchildren.

Carl has been a resident at Four Seasons since 2006 and is a retired Navy veteran with six years of service. Two years were active duty and he served four years of non-active duty in San Diego. He decided on pizza and chicken wings for the entrée of the month. In addition to playing dominoes Carl enjoys playing card games like canasta and pinochle.

Carl is a very unique domino player with an innate ability to foresee and predict the outcome of a game by mentally calculating the other opponents move before they actually make a play. But, just like a fortune teller, sometimes his predictions are off and the game is lost.

Playing dominoes with Carl is a great experience. You get to enjoy preferred seating and Carl always has a great joke to tell you to keep you laughing. If you heard the joke before, just go along with it. We are all getting older and forget a lot of things. I am still looking for my eyeglasses that I lost last week.

BALLROOM DANCE CLUB

Our Fall Fling dinner dance featured good food, music, dancing and fun. Thanks to Terry and Betty Fears for the great room decorations, to Bev Fagan for the centerpieces, and to all who helped make it a successful event.

We'll be hosting the Christmas Dinner Dance on Dec. 12, from 5:30 to 9:30 pm. Featured will be seasonal decorations, a delicious catered dinner, and entertaining dance music by Christopher Landry and his band Shine. At $25 per person it's a great value. Tickets go on sale Monday, Nov. 3.

HEART & SOUL LINE DANCE

LINE DANCE DEFINITION - Wikipedia: "Line dance is a choreographed dance with a repeated sequence of steps in which a group of people dance in one or more lines or rows without regard for the gender of the individuals, all facing each other or in the same direction and executing the steps at the same time."

LINE DANCE ETIQUETTE TIP: Keep your head up, smile and enjoy – it's very interesting to watch a line dancer execute the moves to a dance while looking down at the dance floor? There is really nothing on the floor to see (except feet)!

We have one more month before we say goodbye to 2014.

LINE DANCING

Here come the holidays! Everyone looks forward to celebrating the many happy occasions this time of year. We don't look forward to those few extra pounds that come with them. A few easy tips...

Have a few small bites of food before you go to a party; you will eat less of those rich goodies offered.

Go easy on the alcohol. It has lots of calories that turn into carbohydrates and settle on unwanted places. Get some exercise every day if you are able. Try attending one of the dance classes offered here at Four Seasons. You will be with other people having fun and moving around.

Dancing is such a good exercise. Not only are you moving, but you are concentrating and trying to get your feet to do what

A new class, Introduction to Dance, is now offered for those who have little or no dance experience and want to learn step by step at an easy, gentle pace. No pressure, no embarrassment, just the basics to help you get started. From 6 to 6:30 pm every Monday evening at a cost of $5. Just show up in our Ballroom and take the class – you'll like it.

Contacts: Club Captains, Puring and Gary Stifter at (951) 922-8333, or purings@verizon.net. ~ Willis Fagan

Start thinking about your resolutions for 2015, and consider joining one of Four Seasons dance classes. Your mind, body, and soul will benefit.

Class schedule – We meet every Wednesday (Except for 3rd Wednesday) in the Ballroom

Beginners 4 – 5:15 pm

Intermediate 5:20 – 6 pm

Remember: No previous experience or partner needed. Wear comfortable clothing and closed toe shoes. Any questions, please feel free to contact me at (951) 922-0755. ~ Priscilla Robles your mind is thinking. This often results in despair (I cannot do this), frustration (why can't I get this one part?) and, then triumph (I finally did it!). Then the laughter and hugs just bubble over.

If you are looking for exercise and fun, come join us. The beginning class starts at 3 pm, the advanced class begins at 3:45 pm and is always working on a new dance. We also take the time to dance to old favorites. We try to teach the line dances you will be hearing at different social events here in the community. Join us, and by New Years Eve, you will be out on the dance floor. There will be no class Nov. 27. Info., (951) 769-3889. ~ Martha Franck

CREATIVE DRAWING & SKETCHING CLASS

"Throughout my lifetime, I have enjoyed trying different mediums. I have done oil painting and drawing the most. I like the simple yet complex medium of the pencil because I love the detail that you are able to obtain with the sharp tip, plus the use of light and shadow to create contrast, shape and texture. When I was in junior high I won a competition to design and draw the front cover of our yearbook. Our mascot was the mustang horse... this was right up my alley since I have always been compelled to relate and express the power, grace, beauty and soul of the horse. I continued to draw and paint throughout high school and college. When I was first married I did commissioned portraits of horses. Then life in general was very busy so this was put on hold for many years. That's why I love going to Rob Kelman's Drawing Class — it's just a very enjoyable time being around a bunch of wonderful people. Rob is an excellent instructor and is very personable. I like hearing him tell us about his life adventures in the art world. The class is a lot of fun!" ~ Bev Lunetta, Artist of the Month

Classes are Mondays 10 am to 12 noon and/or Wednesdays 6 to 8pm. Just stop by and get started! ~ Rob Kelman

“BELIEVE.” WOMEN’S BIBLE STUDY

We just passed our 40th lesson since the inception of this group on Jan. 3, 2014. Each lesson has been enhanced by the thoughts and insights of this beautiful group of amazing women, who come from all denominations, at all levels of Biblical knowledge. We are now winding down our study of 1 Corinthians 13:1-7.

In October we discussed what the Bible teaches about holding grudges and forgiveness; what constitutes delighting in evil (reading, watching, listening to anything that is not uplifting; gossip; and gloating), as well as delighting in the truth (i.e., what is truth, and who is truth). After that we discussed protection (what do we protect, who do we protect, and how do we protect).

Four Seasons women, if you are interested in enhancing your knowledge and understanding of the Word of God, and sharing in the growth we experience each week surrounded by a loving group of kind, good women, come join us every Friday morning from 10:30 to 11:30 am in the first section of the Ballroom. This is a non-denominational study of God’s Word, and all women are welcome. ~ Eileen Gilbert-Antoine

PERFORMING ARTS CLUB

I know I wrote about the Laugh Out Loud show in the October issue, but actually when I did, the show had not yet been performed. Now that it has, WOW...WOW...WOW! I must congratulate the producers and the entire cast for their time, persistence, and willingness to have a fun, silly time! It certainly paid off as I received compliments from so many people saying it was one of the best shows the Performing Arts Club (PAC) has ever put on. With responses like that, rest assured, there will be more coming.

On a more current note, the Radio Shows: besides the fact that they are the easiest entry into PAC, it requires no memorization. You read straight from a script and we do have rehearsals. If you're not into acting, then attending our Radio Shows makes for an extremely inexpensive Friday night out at the Lodge. There is no charge to attend the Radio Show. All you need to do is bring your favorite beverage and dinner from the Bistro or home. Come in, sit down, relax and enjoy the show, just like so many of you did on Oct. 10. Thank you again for your continued participation and attendance to these shows. This time we presented another episode of The Lone Ranger, a fan fave... and introduced a new show, My Favorite Husband, (the same show that Lucille Ball got her start in show business). The actors did a great job and the audience loved us. What was so great, due to our open auditions, between the two shows, I believe we had four new actors join the Performing Arts Club. I urge all residents to get involved in some way, whether it's technical, production, onstage, behind the stage, sound effects, whatever. Trust me, we're not a rules and regs group, we're a fun group!

Finally, the Holiday Show will be on Dec. 5 and 6. Decide which day is best for you and put it on your calendar NOW! I assure you, it's going to be fabulous, maybe our best ever, and definitely, family friendly.

WRITERS' CLUB

For the past thousands of years, the number seven has been considered magic for portending good luck and success. How many things and people has history listed in sevens? Our last meeting was held on the 7th of October and it was a success for the quality of the presentations and commentaries.

First, Jean L. Lawrence, John Baeyertz and Phil Bond, who made a presentation last month, gave a brief follow-up on their respective subject.

Two new presentations were next on the agenda. They were of a totally different nature. First, Joan Nicholson read and discussed the opening pages of her new novel, still untitled. The scene is in a bar where two friends, Dan and Dugan, meet frequently. On this night, they meet a woman named Riley who starts off a predictable adventure. Where will it lead? The answer is still unpredictable.

The second presentation was given by Henry Roberts, a physicist by profession. His wife Gail preceded him as a published author. Henry gave a fascinating lecture on linguistics and on publishing which generated many interesting questions and comments by the members.

Members and non-members may attend the next meeting of the club on Tuesday, Nov. 4, Election Day, at 1:30 pm in the Lodge. Phil Bond will be the chairperson. ~ Joseph Laurin

CLASSICAL MUSIC CLUB

Misspeld Naymes – A Commun Problemlem for Reeserchirs. The greatest influx of immigrants arrived at New York between 1892 and 1924. From 1918 on, most records were typewritten. Earlier records were handwritten and were often difficult to read, resulting in transcription errors and misspelled names.

Most passengers were identified on the ship's manifest before it left the old country, and the ship's officers were familiar with many passengers. The captain and the medical officer certified the accuracy of each list, and on arrival in New York inspectors examined the manifest and tickets of the passengers on each vessel.

Furthermore, Ellis Island officials interviewed each person, and used interpreters and methods to prevent the misspelling of names. Very few names were intentionally changed at Ellis Island. In most cases, it wasn't until the naturalization process that names were purposely changed.

Reasons for misspelling names are numerous. A person might not know how to spell their name. The person recording a name might misspell it. It might be misspelled during transcription (from hand writing to type). It might have been changed on purpose. And many names were incorrect because they were spelled simply by how they sounded.

So consider the possibility of misspeld naymes in the process of doing your family tree.

We have been rehearsing new songs and some favorite holiday songs for the enjoyment of all who attend the holiday shows the first weekend in December. We will be doing the same songs and sing along on both Friday and Saturday evenings. We are having fun and improving our health while singing. Hope to see you all at the holiday event.

There was such a wave of explosive laughter emanating from behind the closed doors of the Arts & Crafts Room last Monday afternoon that those of us in the Bereavement Group who were doing the laughing clapped our hands over our mouths and waited for the knock on the door telling us to pipe down. Of course that knock never came.

We took a moment to assess that laughter. We were in a bereavement group. We had all endured painful loss or losses. We had come together to seek comfort and understanding, and we were talking about how to keep moving forward in life, even if we didn't really think we could. We were sad! And yet here we were, laughing delightedly.

The conclusion of our assessment: we are resilient. We might feel so devastated, so broken, so paralyzed by our grief that life ahead seems worthless and insurmountable, but when we share our pain and listen to others share theirs, healing ensues. And there is almost nothing more healing than laughter.

Toward the end of the meeting we had our traditional moment of quiet and as we started to leave, the most recent member of our group said, “I feel better. I’ll see all of you next week.”

We meet in the Arts & Crafts Room at the Lodge on Mondays from 1 to 3 pm.

BOOK CLUB

The book chosen for our meeting on Nov. 11 at 9:30 am is The 100-Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared, by Jonas Jonasson. Here is a description of the book from Amazon.com: "After a long and eventful life, Allan Karlsson ends up in a nursing home, believing it to be his last stop. The only problem is that he's still in good health, and in one day, he turns 100. A big celebration is in the works, but Allan really isn't interested (and he'd like a bit more control over his vodka consumption). So he decides to escape. He climbs out the window in his slippers and embarks on a hilarious and entirely unexpected journey, involving, among other surprises, a suitcase stuffed with cash, some unpleasant criminals, a friendly hot-dog stand operator, and an elephant (not to mention a death by elephant).

"It would be the adventure of a lifetime for anyone else, but Allan has a larger-than-life back story: Not only has he witnessed some of the most important events of the twentieth century, but he has actually played a key role in them. Starting out in munitions as a boy, he somehow finds himself involved in many of the key explosions of the twentieth century and travels the world, sharing meals and more with everyone from Stalin, Churchill, and Truman to Mao, Franco, and de Gaulle. Quirky and utterly unique, The 100-Year-Old Man Who Climbed Out the Window and Disappeared has charmed readers across the world."

If you love books and like lively discussions of them, come join us. Our meetings are on the second Tuesday of the month at 9:30 am. Our book for December is scheduled to be The Unlikely Pilgrimage of Harold Fry, by Rachel Joyce. For more information, please call our president, Doreen Sanders, at (951) 769-1913. ~ Micki Rosen

BEAUMONT BLOOMS

November is normally a busy time inside and outside as holidays approach and gardens complete their annual cycle. But this year is somewhat different due to the prolonged drought and mandated water rationing. The best action our gardeners might take is to sit outside and ponder as the last leaves float to earth? The exuberance of cultivating primordial lands and turning them into a personal Garden of Eden as we moved in may have led us to landscape like we were back east or in Orange County. Are the lush gardens optimistically planted in Four Seasons' front and backyards no longer viable even with herculean efforts and copious amounts of TLC?

Even with a modest El Niño ever more restrictive water consumption rules are forecast. Xeriscape gardens, rock gardens and drought tolerant plants are options that should be examined if a gardener wants to change their watering demands. Mixing and matching will likely be the attractive design since few of us want to part with mature shade trees and seasonal colors. This also applies to irrigation system integrating drip, spray and hand watering with household recycled water. So, go online, check out some books and visit local florists for ideas then, sit and ponder before investing in mulch, fertilizers and new plants. ~ Leonard Tavernetti

PADDLE TENNIS

Michael Rothberg has done a wonderful job in the past, writing and gathering stories for our players, but he has passed the torch to me, Diana Johnson Ali. I hope to provide fun and interesting stories about the sport of paddle tennis.

Last February, while touring our Four Seasons Lodge Facility, we noticed people playing a game called Paddle Tennis on a smaller tennis court. We had never seen it played before, but it looked like it would be a lot of fun and good exercise. So we joined the play after being offered loaner paddles. It is fun, and there is always laughter and camaraderie. Since I knew nothing about the game, I thought it would be interesting, to read about its origin...

History of paddle tennis

The Reverend Frank Beal developed paddle tennis in 1898 as an activity for children. He viewed the game as an introduction for children to learn to play tennis. His original paddle tennis court was 18 x 39, one half the size of a regulation tennis court. Beal's version used a sponge-rubber ball and a wooden paddle. The smaller court and short-handled paddle appealed to the kids. In 1922, the first paddle tennis tournament was held in New York and in the late 1920s the game of paddle tennis grew in popularity, even with adults, spreading to other cities, including Los Angeles and surrounding areas.

Around the mid 1930s Murray Geller, chairman of the USPTA Rules Committee decided an official "adult" court size to be set at 20 x 44 (the same size as a badminton and pickle-ball).

By the late 1950s the game's popularity was soaring with well known tennis players, like Althea Gibson and Bobby Riggs, playing the sport of paddle tennis.

Then in 1961, after some controversy, the courts were lengthened on each end to make the courts now 20 x 50, the standard dimensions used today. Other changes were implemented, the sponge-rubber ball was replaced with a deadened tennis ball (that has been punctured with a needle). The nets were slightly lowered, and the overhand serve was eliminated to only one underhand serve, rules that are being followed to this day.

The above history was taken from information provided by the current USPTA, based in California.

So for now, welcome all, good play, good times and good exercise. ~ Diana Johnson Ali

RACQUET CLUB

We served up a smashing Annual Meeting on Oct. 21, with a rousing review of the 2014 events by Committee Chairman Irve Sturner. Highlighting the special tennis competition of the July 4th Red-Blue team battle (Irve's team won!), the hosted luncheons in conjunction with Play Days, both Wimbledon and the U.S. Open, and our neighborly matches at Sun Lakes, with reciprocal BBQs, Irve reminded all of us of the active and fun year shared by the Four Seasons Beaumont Racquet Club members. One of the business matters at the meeting was the renewal of annual club membership, and for a measly $20 members received their 2015 stickers for their badges and the prospect of another fun and food-filled year of tennis. Barb Miller arranged the catering for the annual meeting, which included salad, two kinds of lasagna, garlic toast, fruit salad, beverages and brownies.

Fortunately, after another Racquet Club event featuring food (see recent Breeze articles mentioning how much we tennis players eat), the Saturday following the annual meeting was another Play Day, and we worked off most of the brownies. The competition at the Play Days has been kicked up a notch by Howard Nelson. In September he gave out tickets to the players for each game they won. The tickets were deposited in a poorly disguised Maxwell House coffee can until all play was completed. Arlene Malkin was selected to draw out the winning ticket. Suspiciously, she drew out her own, but nevertheless, Howard awarded her the first prize, a scarecrow bobblehead from Beaumont's new Farmer Boy's restaurant.

The challenge ladder for Mixed Doubles was given the go-ahead. Seven teams are the initial competitors, but other teams can form up and join the challenge. The seeded teams are: Larry Z. and Padoo P., Larry and Bernadette M., Loren D. and Lovey C., Richard C. and Barbara M., Den S. and Jocelyn G., Frank G. & Arlene M., Lyle C. & Tina S. Teams make their own playing arrangements, and then report their scores to Barbara, who will post/record the scores and be the referee as needed.

Meanwhile, social tennis will continue on the second and third Thursdays and the open-to-all Play Day will be on the last Saturday of the month. We're at www.fsbrc.org.

Remember to vote on Nov. 4! ~ Steven Hovey

PICKLEBALL

It is getting cooler out so now is the time to get that body moving. Looking for a sport to play with your spouse? This is your perfect match. Pickleball is lots of fun and easy to learn. Come celebrate this exploding sport with us and enjoy the physical benefits that it brings. Pickleball is not only competitive, but is also a sport that is meant to bring people together. So, get out of the house and see what a paddle, a yellow ball full of holes, and some great people can do to put a smile on your face. We have extra paddles for you to try. If you have played tennis or racquetball you will easily slide into this sport.

Group play times: T/Th/Sat., 9 am (NEW TIME)

THE 8-BALL CLUB

In action during our in-house 8 and 9-ball tournaments, both victors blasted through all challengers undefeated!

We were not in attendance for the 8-ball tournament so I don't know much more than Rick Loney and Ray Windhorn were finalists and Ray won undefeated.

In 9-ball action this past month I am proud to say my wife Thanh Harrah was the champion and never lost a game before the final matches. To earn this spot she beat me, then our captain Del Lyles, and Ray Windhorn... all good players and worthy opponents.

The procedure for double eliminations is whoever goes into the finals from the losers bracket must win two games straight against anyone undefeated during regular play. Dewey Allen came up from the losers column needing to win twice and he took the first game. Thanh was never scared when she racked up for the last and final game. The balls were sunk in order from the 1 to the 7 ball where Thanh made a beautiful 7-9 combination to take the game and secure the championship.

Great job Thanh, the team is proud of you!

We practice together at 7 pm on first and third Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays. Monthly 8-Ball meetings are on the first Wednesday of the month at 7 pm. The in-house 8-ball tournament is on the second Wednesday at 7 pm. In-house

9-ball tournament is now on the fourth Wednesday of the month at 7 pm.

Our traveling tournaments are the second and fourth Monday of the month. The second Monday, we travel to Hemet Solera and the fourth Monday Solera Hemet comes here. Check the message board in the Billiards Room for any changes of dates or locations.

BILLIARDS FOR FUN

Rather than try and convince you loyal Breeze readers that we have an amazing group of people playing billiards for fun, we decided to interview members and get their feedback as to what they find so fun and satisfying about this group.

Marvin Gaines said, "I have a great time with these wonderful people." See? Validation.

Dave Martin said, "enjoys the sociality," and Richard Carrasco added, "These are the nicest people in the whole wide world." And they are all at Four Seasons - and in our group!

Some of the other players expressed how their game has improved, while just having fun. Mike Saperstein said, "I don't feel any pressure to make a shot," while Bob Berwin said, "I enjoy playing competitively with two-member teams."

Lee Harris said, "I have learned a lot about angles and bank shots by watching other players."

Ron Erickson, who has been a member of this group since its inception in August of 2012, said, "During the past two years since each member of the group has increased their individual skill level, and the competitiveness level has increased simultaneously." Rich Meumann concurred.

Dee Kelch is "impressed with how respectful each member is with each person's skill level," and Norma Jean Cohen likes the fact that "there are more men than women in the group."

Mike Olsen "enjoys the genuine camaraderie," and Gaylord Jamerson said, "I'm just thrilled to be able to get out of the house for a couple of hours, and do something I enjoy."

Proof of all the above quotes are validated by the photos adjacent to this article. If you want to get out of the house for a couple of hours and do something really fun with a great group of people, come join us every Tuesday from 1 to 3 pm in the Billiards Room. There is also an informal practice session on Saturdays from 10:30 am to 12:30 pm as well. Come check us out. You won't be disappointed. ~ Eileen Gilbert-Antoine

Wind and water shape the bluff inhabitants

HEARTY HIKERS

It wasn't the Banzai Pipeline but the high tide, full moon and tropical storm off Baja made for dramatic waves at Crystal Cove for the Hearty Hikers fifth annual trek to the beach. With an 11 o'clock high tide the beach frontage was narrow and short as we strolled out on arrival. The water was cool but not cold and a few hearty souls were body surfing the curls. The north side of the cove is all sand for about three-quarters of a mile and is the frontage for the ruins of Hollywood sets from the black and white film days. A few families of pre-school age children enjoyed the perfect weather while their young'uns danced in the creeping surf or built sand fortifications with plastic shovels. Evidence of weather and water erosion covers the bluff to Pacific Coast Highway uncaring of human presence in this almost pristine enclave.

Two of the dozen hikers were ambulatory and established watch at the Beachcomber Restaurant, arguably the main reason for fighting freeway frenzy from Beaumont to Beach. At midday we descended on three tables like vultures on a country road. As always, food and service were great. In the past our receipts entitled diners to free parking upon exiting the lot. A new system involving a contract company now requires a complex process ticket of partial validation at a kiosk before entering your car and then subsequent validation at the gate from your car. Our waitress carefully explained this twice (we're old) at each table. On returning to the parking lot we discovered the kiosk was out-of-order.

With full stomachs the group split up, some intent on beating the afternoon rush on the freeways and some answering the siren of the receding tide and sight of reefs protruding on the southern beach. Eventually we all genuflected in front of the foot showers to reduce the amount of sand that always finds a way to hitchhike home with us.

Our October hike is to the Aspen Grove in San Geronio Mountains (7,000') and the November hike is to Lytle Creek. Hikes are on the second Wednesday of the month.

To find out where else we are hiking in 2014 call or email Lynette at (951) 377-0392 or lynette.simonson@gmail.com. ~ Leonard Tavernetti

Rick Brower assists Ann and Rich Williams traverse a difficult section of trail.

4X4 SEASONS

Our monthly trip is always the third Thursday of every month. We meet in the north parking lot of the Lodge at 8 am. Our trip in September was to Rattlesnake Canyon. We entered from Highway 247 in Johnson Flats. We traveled about five miles through the canyon. The trail was windy and narrow with steep canyon walls. It was slow going through the rugged terrain. We observed several coveys of Gambel Quail. When we reached the top at Mound Springs, we were surrounded by a very large stand of Joshua Trees. We passed by Farrington Observatory on our way to Pioneer Town where we enjoyed a great lunch at the famous Poppy & Harriett's restaurant. Anyone who has a four-wheel drive vehicle is welcome. Most of the trips are on State service trails designated as four-wheel drive. We do not do extreme off-roading. If you do not own a four-wheel drive vehicle, you are more than welcome to ride along. Call Bob Cooper to make arrangements, or with club questions, at (951) 769-6352. ~ Bob Cooper

MOTORCYCLE CLUB

Our club members have varied histories and choices of vehicles as can be seen by some of these photos.

The common link between the members is the feeling of individualism and freedom that cruising in the fresh air on a motorcycle offers. Our weekly rides provide a time of peace and quiet while touring some of our local roads and enjoying the beauty of life in Southern California. Once we reach our day's destination the camaraderie we enjoy over breakfast or lunch is added to the day's pleasure.

Some of the members participate in multi-day trips during the year which multiplies the enjoyment of the daily rides by the number of days in the trip. Imagine getting up in the morning and riding a motorcycle in the fresh air through some beautiful country, then settling into a comfortable motel late in the afternoon for some relaxation in the jacuzzi or pool with a cold beer or glass of wine while discussing the day's adventure before dinner. Then get a good night's rest and repeat the next day! Heaven!

Our club meetings are normally held at 6 pm on the first Wednesday of each month in the Lodge Ballroom. Because of the busy end of year and holiday schedules of the members we will not hold meetings in November or December. Our next meeting will be Jan. 7, 2015. ~ Howard Lyon

HORSESHOES FOR FUN

If you are not a member of the Horseshoe Club, you ought to be. Long time members' skill levels have improved along with their wit and humor, which makes for a lot of fun and stiff competition each week. Our October social event produced our largest member and spouses turn out to date. Yes, 19 of us had dinner at the Bistro and then met at Dave and Suzanne Roldan's home for dessert, consisting of apple and pumpkin pie with all the trimmings — just the perfect thing to get us all in the mood for the fall and upcoming holidays. The Roldan's have a most beautiful and comfortable home both inside and out. Thank you Dave and Suzanne.

So, if you've ever thrown horseshoes or just want to try something new, you don't want to miss this! We've changed our starting time to 9 am Wednesday mornings. GOLFING FOR FUN

We are a group of guys who gather on Friday mornings to smack a ball around local affordable golf courses. There is a significant variance in our skill levels. The goal is to have fun, improve and meet others who live here in the community. Should you wish to join in contact Larry Zimmerman at zzman1028@yahoo.com or (909) 553-2798. You may also reach me at tjacobson@dc.rr.com, (951) 797-3563.

We are a “kick back” group that has diverse handicap skills but we hope if you are new to golfing you take some lessons and practice first. That would allow you not only to have more fun and to keep up but to out do a number of our players. Not all the “complicated rules” of golf are always followed so if that bothers you we may not be the group for you.

Lesson for the month from Golf Digest... SWINGING TOO FAST: If your swing brings to mind a blender on liquefy, time to slow it down. John Mclean offers this advise on rhythm. Stop off to the side and saying ‘1 and 2’ with emphasis on the ‘and’ while practicing swing(s). The ‘1’ takes you to the top, the slower ‘and’ covers the all important pause and transition, and the ‘2’ takes you through impact. Just give us a call if you would like more information. ~ Tim Jacobson

THE HEMET “OLDLYMPICS”

During several weeks in September and October, several residents in our Four Seasons community participated in the Hemet “Oldlympics” in its 30th year. The events culminated in an awards banquet held Oct. 7 at the Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District in Hemet. Following are the medals received, and comments by each recipient:

Jesse Aceves: Earned a gold medal in pickle ball. He was impressed with the competitive level of the other players. Next year? Basketball, bench press, decathlon!

Brian Anderson: Won three gold medals in swimming: 25-yard free style; 50- yard free style; 25-yard back stroke ~ and he only trained for three weeks!

Pete Antoine: One gold in bench press (275 lbs.), golds in the 400 meter run and 1500 meter walk, as well as silvers in basketball and billiards. He’s already planning what events to enter next year.

Sue Barker: Was awarded a silver medal in pickle ball. She is excited to show her medal to her grandchild who participates in the Special Olympics.

Nancy Barnaby: After receiving her gold medal for pickle ball, said she “enjoys being with other competitive women.” Next year she’ll try track and field as well.

Richard Carrasco: Received gold in chair volleyball, silvers in doubles tennis and the Funtathlon, and bronze medals in mixed doubles tennis and pickleball. For sure he’ll sign up for 2015.

Dee Kelch: Although she didn’t medal in billiards, she has increased her resolve to improve her game and challenge the women again next year.

Lian Lee: Received a bronze medal in table tennis. She enjoys the other players’ responses to making or missing a shot.

Gracy Luna: Gold for Gracy in the 1500 meter walk! And her husband, Hilario won gold in the same race! Yay! Gracy already has plans to add to next year’s events: 400 meter run, basketball, standing long jump, and soft ball throw. She says, “I’ll keep competing until I’m on the other side of the grass.”

Barry Pope: Received a bronze medal in table tennis doubles. He enjoyed the friendly people, and how well the event was organized.

Niles Sundstrom: Gold medal in doubles table tennis, and was honored to be the first person to win gold in this event.

Other winners: Adrian Zarr achieved silver in pickle ball, and Gilbert Apodaca won silver in table tennis.

For questions about next year’s Hemet Oldlympics, contact Joy at the Valley-Wide Recreation and Park District at (951) 654-1505, or ask any of this year’s competitors when you seen them around the community! ~ Eileen Gilbert-Antoine

There is always something happening in your ping pong club. Recently, Alfred Blair joined our club and became our newest member. He has been a great addition and has made our playtime and competition a lot more fun. During the month of September, two of our players ventured down to the San Diego Senior Games and competed in their table tennis tournament. Those players, Barry Pope and Suchart Sudhamma both came home with medals. Playing in different divisions, Barry won a 2nd place medal and Suchart also won a second place medal. Last month we had four of our players, Rony Tordesillas, Barry Pope, Lian Lee, Gil Apodaca, and Niles Sundstrom compete in the Oldlympics in Hemet. Overall, we did very well, and there will be a report on that tournament next month.

Ping pong is a great activity for everyone in our community and we welcome everyone, from beginners to Olympic champions, to join us Monday - Friday at 10:30 am and

Saturday at 11:30 am. Please contact Niles Sundstrom at (951) 572-5119 or Alan Chan at (951) 769-4202 if you have any questions or need more information about your Four Seasons' Ping Pong Group. ~ Niles Sundstrom
