GENERAL MANAGER'S REPORT

The Davis-Stirling Act & HOA Board Meetings

By Eric Zarr

In California, all Homeowners Associations are governed by the Davis-Stirling Common Interest Development Act. The Act was first written in 1985 and went into effect on Jan. 1, 1986. Each year the legislature amends and revises the Act, and the Act was completely reorganized and rewritten in 2014. An integral part of the Act is how a board can, and cannot, conduct business.

The Board must operate in an open manner and hold open meetings. The Act includes Civil Code Section 4900, also known as the Open Meeting Act. "The board shall not take any action on any item of business outside of a board meeting." Civ. Code 4910(a). A board meeting is defined by the Act as a quorum of directors gathered at the same time and place to "hear, discuss, or deliberate upon any item of business that is within the authority of the board." Civ. Code 4090. As Four Seasons Beaumont is a seven member board, a quorum is when four or more Board members are gathered together. Email meetings are prohibited unless for an emergency, which is also defined in the Act.

Civil Code Section 4920 requires that an agenda for meetings is published. The agenda for an executive session meeting must be posted two days prior to the meeting. The agenda for an open session meeting must be posted four days in advance. The Association posts both agendas once created which is normally seven days in advance. The agendas are posted to the bulletin board in The Lodge and online.

Civil Code Section 4925 codifies the rights of homeowners to attend and speak at board meetings. Civil Code does permit a reasonable time limit for this part of the meeting which has been established as three minutes per speaker and thirty minutes for this portion of the meeting.

The Board cannot discuss or act upon an item if it is not on the agenda that has been posted. However, Civil Code does allow the board to, "briefly respond to statements or questions posed by a person speaking at a meeting" or to "ask a question for clarification, make a brief announcement..." In a Homeowner Forum, one will see that a homeowner might ask a question or want to discuss an item with the Board. The Board is limited in how the Board can respond, based on the above Civil Code. If a question is posed, or more information can be given to the owner, correspondence will be sent to the owner directly the following week.

ACTIVITIES DIRECTOR CORNER

By Cindy Graves

November is my favorite month for gratitude. I'm grateful for the opportunity to serve this community for as long as I have been privileged to do so. October was my 13th year anniversary and what an amazing journey it has been. My favorite part of this wonderful job is obviously the people. This neighborhood's greatest assets are its loving, considerate, tenderhearted residents. I love the way that new people are so quickly embraced into the community and that most of our blocks enjoy doing things together. I just had a discussion with two ten-year residents and they were reminiscing about when the neighborhood was young and everybody waved and greeted each other on the street, even though, in reality, they were strangers. The attitude of inclusion, acceptance, and community spirit has been such a wonderful legacy here at Four Seasons and has been the signature difference between us and other communities. With Thanksgiving right around the corner, I'd like to encourage everyone to remember how we started and what made us great. We are getting so large now and nearly at build-out, but let's make a concerted effort to hold on to the community values that turned strangers into family. May everyone have a memorable and sweet Thanksgiving.

Following my theme of gratitude this month, let's talk about the upcoming Veterans Day display that will be held in The Lodge Lobby and Ballroom on both Wednesday, Nov. 6 and Thursday, Nov. 7. This will be another amazing collaboration between the HOA and March Air Reserve Base personnel, who have generously agreed to help us do a more light-hearted recognition of our ever-loved and respected hometown heroes — our Four Seasons Veterans. The theme this year is airplane "Nose Art," not to be confused with nose jobs or nose piercings. Nose Art are the delightful paintings, usually on the airplane fuselage, that were used as an expression of individuality to identify friendly airplane units. The art served as a kind of psychological protection against the stresses of war and the possibility of death and was used to evoke memories of home and peacetime life. This display is going to be fascinating and unique. We hope it will honor all of our veterans, especially the military aviators. My dad was a Marine fighter pilot, so aviators hold a special place in my heart.

There will also be a short veterans' program on Thursday, Nov. 7 at 1 p.m. in The Lodge Ballroom. Everyone is welcome to attend and refreshments will be served. This would actually be a good one to invite the grandkids to because we'll have some really cool large model planes to look at. A big thank you goes to Four Seasons veteran Jerry San Filippo who put countless hours of handwork on some of these display models as well as planning and negotiating with March AFB. Come and spend a minute being grateful for those who have served on our behalf.

You'll be grateful you marked Saturday, Nov. 9, on your calendar. The Four Seasons Car, Motorcycle and 4x4 Show in The Lodge parking lot is scheduled from 10 am to 2 pm. We need you to come and be the judges of these vehicles for the "People's Choice Awards." If you didn't know, we have some really bitchin' (old slang meaning awesome) classic show cars as well as some incredible motorcycles and 4x4s in the neighborhood. I dare you to come on down and see these babies. You'll love it. DJ Tracy Crow, will be rocking the tunes while you drool over the vehicles. It'll be a fun morning.

Aren't we all grateful for the effort that goes into the fourseasonsbeaumont.org association website? The man behind the magic is Larry Workman from the Communications Board. He and his web team monitor, format, and create a user-friendly web environment for the average Joe and Joan to use. We have noticed, however, that there are folks who still feel a bit intimidated with the website and those who are just curious and would like to know how to better maneuver and find the many resources available there. Lucky for those people and for you, Larry will be holding an informative workshop in the RCN Great Room on Wednesday, Nov. 13 at 6:30 pm. Come prepared to learn some tricks and tools to help you best discover all that the website has to offer. No sign-ups are required, just come on over.

Finally, I'm grateful for the incredible talent housed in Four Seasons. Stan-the-man Sweeney. Being one of the most talented guys around here, Stan has recently put together a band with several other of our talented residents and they're calling it "Front Row." Their Four Seasons debut will be in The Lodge Ballroom on Saturday, Nov. 23 at 6 pm. Feel free to bring your dinner and drinks in and enjoy this new sensation. If you feel inclined, you may tap your toes or get all the way up and dance your heart out. This is a free event and everyone is welcome.

More than 590 children had a very special Christmas last year, thanks, in a large part, to the residents of Four Seasons. You were joined by other retirement communities, schools, churches, businesses, service clubs, and many members of the community to fulfill the Christmas wishes and fill the stomachs of over 190 families within the Beaumont Unified School District.

Beginning Friday, Nov. 1, the Winter Wish Program is, again, asking for your compassionate participation in the 2019 Winter Wish Gift and Food Drive.

A Christmas tree will be adorned with tags including names, ages, and Christmas wishes. The tree will be placed near The Lodge front desk. To participate in this year's gift giving, simply select a paper tag and check the tag out with the front desk attendant. Then return the wrapped gift with the attached tag you chose to The Lodge front desk, no later than Wednesday, Dec. 4, at 5 pm.

Some food items that can be donated include: cheese or peanut butter crackers, single serving soups (with pull tab openings), tomato juice, trail mix, applesauce, fruit cups, power bars, single serving Chefboyardee items, dried fruits, any kind of pasta, canned vegetables and fruit, individually packaged chips/pretzels/goldfish, Vienna Sausages (pull top lids), individual packets of oatmeal, bags of rice or beans, boxes of cereal, beef jerky, Ramen noodles, packaged nuts, fruit snacks, pudding, granola bars, cereal bars, ravioli/SpaghettiOs, peanut butter/jelly, spaghetti sauce, macaroni and cheese, boxed drinks and juices, Pop Tarts, canned tuna, crackers, canned/dry goods. ~ Pamela Dopf, bdlalm@aol.com

Karaoke Guest Policy Updated

Twelve years ago, Four Seasons created a monthly Karaoke night at which we had approximately four to seven singers. Outside guests were encouraged to attend so those who just wanted to listen could enjoy a variety of music. Over the years, we have built Karaoke to what it is today. With the help of Dave and Janine Rohrbacker, who introduced dancing into the night, we have increased singers to between 35 and 40. Many of the dancers swore they would never sing but have now become regular singers and we can't get the microphones out of their hands.

As a result, and in order to make our residents the first priority, we are enacting the following new Karaoke guidelines relating to non-resident guests. A Four Seasons resident can still bring guests, but only residents will be able to put their names on the singing list and participate in singing a song.

Can a guest ever sing? Yes. When a resident's name is called, that three to four minute block belongs to the resident. If a resident decides to give up their time to their guest, they may do so. If the resident wants to do a duet with their guest, they may do so. These arrangements will not take away any time for another resident.

Many of the guests who come to Karaoke have other venues in which to sing. We have to be sensitive to the needs of our residents and make them the priority. We see the need for this change and to be consistent with groups, clubs and classes regulating themselves. We feel that this new policy is important to implement.

I want to thank those who have been very loyal to Karaoke and to those guests who have helped bring enjoyment to Four Seasons residents. ~ John Noonan

The Four Seasons at Beaumont Conservation Area

By Len Tavernetti

This is the final segment of a three-part series, describing our conservation area and its associated conservation easement. Prior articles included how the conservation area came to be and what it means to our association. This last component will cover our responsibilities.

The HOA responsibilities will be to safeguard and maintain the conservation area and easement as documented in the Long Term Management Plan. As the Land Manager, the Inland Empire Resource Conservation District (IERCD) will have oversight and conduct periodic inspections of the wildlife and plant conditions within the conservation area and easement. The HOA will conduct quarterly inspections by a qualified representative or biologist familiar with sensitive habitat areas.

Irrigation has been turned off at all mitigation sites since 2009 and the vegetation has remained self-sustaining with no indication of decline with minimal weeding. Irrigation in the irrigated buffer zone has been greatly reduced to prevent the discharge of irrigation waters into Potrero Creek.

The conservation area also includes 10.73 acres of Additional Maintenance Areas such as gabions (caged boxes filled with rocks), retaining walls and non-quality water drains. The HOA will be responsible to maintain these features. The HOA will not be responsible for any damage due to Acts of God.

Monitoring status and changes in the conservation area and easement will be a joint Land Manager and HOA responsibility. Conditions of weed/invasive species invasion, presence of animal pests, presence of plant pests and disease, trash accumulation, fire hazards, excessive erosion or sedimentation, water quality, and condition of fencing will be evaluated. An adaptive management approach will be employed to rectify negative impacts to the conservation area and easement.

K. Hovnanian representatives report the monthly costs for maintenance have been $10,000. The HOA has been budgeting for this expense since 2016 as turnover of the conservation area and easement were scheduled for that year.

On Sept. 20, in honor of POW/MIA day, our Four Seasons Honor Roll Veterans Club honored WWII heroes who never returned home from that war.

During their September Veterans Club meeting, Army veteran Len Tavernetti (Chairperson of Four Seasons HOA Board of Directors) reviewed the planned memorial event, which would include a convoy of approximately 20 participating veteran's vehicles and motorcycle escorts to the Redlands Hillside cemetery by both Beaumont Police department and members of the Hemet Chapter 53 American Legion Riders.

On the morning of the event, Four Seasons Activities Director Cindy Graves and General Manager Eric Zarr joined with the veteran's convoy and motorcycle escorts in The Lodge parking lot. Although the veteran's convoy lacked a certain degree of military precision moving through heavy traffic, with the aid of Beaumont police officer S. Bronstrup and one energetic American Legion motorcycle-mounted Marine veteran escort, the convoy made its way to the cemetery in good order.

Len Tavernetti lead the solemn ceremony. One by one, each of the missing World War II veteran's names was announced by our Four Seasons veterans and members of their family followed by the ringing of a lone bell. With the last name announced and the final note from the bell fading, those present rendered a military hand salute as TAPs was played by a Marine veteran bugler.

Through the generous efforts and talents of the Four Seasons' Craft Group, each memorial marker had been adorned with an individualized banner and yellow ribbon.

In the spirit of POW/MIA day, our Four Seasons Veterans kept faith with those still unaccounted for and acknowledged the sacrifice made by the soldiers, seamen, Marines, and airmen whose markers lay in the Redlands Hillside cemetery. ~ Dave Moreland and Glenn King

Apps For Around Town - Part Two

By Steve Benoff

Two more apps for local enterprises are up for review.

I admit to being only a casual coffee drinker. Since

I only drink decaf with a little non-fat milk and a packet of Equal, I'm far from a connoisseur. I'm sure my daughter, who can't survive without a cup of full-strength coffee in the morning, can tell the difference between dark roast and blonde roast, but I can't. So, when I want a cup of coffee, I make it myself at home. All of this is my way of telling you that I'm the guy who doesn't go to Starbucks for coffee. They do, however, make some pretty nice sandwiches. (Make is an interesting word since I'm sure their food gets delivered by truck after being prepared in some distant factory.)

Nonetheless, Martha and I wanted to pick up a couple of cheese and fruit protein boxes on our way to LA, so I thought I'd use the Starbucks app to place my order. I downloaded the app and began the set-up process. This was where I found my first problem. It seems I have only two payment choices. I can pay in the store, which, of course, greatly slows the pickup process. Or I can buy a Starbucks Card. There appears to be no option to register a credit card for automatic payment on an order-by-order basis.

Once I set up my app, I began to order. Selecting the protein boxes was easy. Since I wanted to fully test the whole process, I ordered two coffees. I was presented with 64 choices under the Hot Coffee label. I found decaf and ordered two. Actually, I ordered one twice. Each order gave me many choices – size (among four), add-ins (18, yes 18), cup options (there appear to be none), flavors (14), and toppings (10). I ordered one black and one with milk and sweetener.

After making my selections, I placed the order. It was at this time - that is, after the order was finalized - that I was given a pickup time frame. There were no pickup choices like at Chipotle. So, if I got there a half hour after placing the order, I'd be greeted with lukewarm coffee.

As it was, when I got there the coffees were not labeled as to which had the milk and sweetener. It turned out that neither did. So, I took off the lid and added milk and Equal. As luck would have it, the unmarked other cup had sweetener added. This was a far cry from what I expected. They did manage to give us two protein boxes without a problem. Of course, I now have $10 left on my card which I'll use who knows when.

For the forced card payment option, for the inability to select a pickup time, for their failure to distinguish between the two coffees, I give Starbucks a B-.

This month's second app is Subway. Being a Subway regular, my first reaction to the idea of ordering on an app was to wonder how it could handle the myriad options available. But I had to look no farther than Starbucks to realize it was likely possible. Of course, I first had to complete the setup process which was no more daunting than any other app. I was pleased to see I had three payment options – credit card, gift card, or PayPal.

Pressing Start Order does the obvious. You can choose from all sandwiches, signature wraps, fresh fit, breakfast, kids, salads, sides, and drinks. I chose all sandwiches. I was presented with four featured sandwiches and 23 regular choices. I usually get ham, turkey, or tuna. This time I chose ham and selected between 6-inch and footlong. I could have ordered it with the specified options of lettuce, tomatoes, and so on. I pressed Customize. This allowed me to select each of the standard ingredients individually and choose the regular amount, half, twice, or remove. By pressing the + button, I could add additional veggies, sauces, seasonings, and extras like bacon or guacamole, or cheese.

Once I was through with my choices I pressed Add to Bag. I was presented with a review of my order including a "Ready today at" time. By pressing the time displayed, I was given individual pickup times at five-minute intervals stretching for 11 and a half hours ahead.

This is a well-designed, easy-to-use app. I give it an A. I've decided to reserve an A+ for a really special app.

If you use an app you'd like to share with others, let me know at steve.benoff@verizon.net.

Four Seasons Residents Medal at OLDlympics

It's that time of year again — the city of Hemet sponsors the Hemet Senior Olympics, aka Hemet OLDlympics. (Yeah, I don't like that name either, 'cuz we already know we're old!) Anyway, many Four Seasons residents participated in the track and field events, billiards, bench press, bingo, bowling, chair volleyball, cribbage, golf, horseshoes, lawn bowling, pinochle, scrabble, shuffleboard, tennis, Texas hold'em, tournament blackjack, pickleball, ping pong, tennis, and swimming. It's so much fun to see these amazing seniors 50+ on the move! Literally! This is the 35th year that Hemet has sponsored this event to which many of our residents look forward to every year.

The very last event is the presentation of medals, followed by a wonderful banquet. The organizers work very hard to make sure each event is fun for the participants. They are patient and encouraging and it's not that far to travel! Check out the adjacent photo of some of the Four Seasons residents who participated.

If you are interested in participating in 2020, it will be held in September/October, and you can find out more information at the Valleywide Recreation and Park District, (951) 927-6672 or (951) 487-9234. C'mon join the fun and challenges! ~ Eileen Gilbert-Antoine

More doctors + more locations = more convenience.

We're investing in the needs of our 65+ community. Beaver already has more primary care doctors than anyone else in the area and we're adding more, particularly in high-demand specialties. From introducing easier ways to schedule appointments to opening new facilities in Beaumont in 2020, Beaver is committed to providing quality healthcare that's more convenient and, well, that makes a little more sense.

Community. Commitment. Local Care.

Seminars last about one hour—no obligation. Call 800-831-0001 for information, to set up a private appointment, or for accommodation of persons with special needs at these meetings. A licensed salesperson will be present with information and applications. Medicare has neither reviewed nor endorsed this information. eHealthInsurance Services, Inc. is a licensed health insurance agency that sells Medicare products and that does business as eHealth. eHealth offers plans from a number of insurance companies and is not affiliated or connected with Medicare, or any other government program or agency. This ad solicits insurance prospects for eHealth. Medicare Open Enrollment: October 15 – December 7.

DID YOU KNOW?

DID YOU KNOW that FirstService Residential has a number of administrative assistants who assist with the efficient operation of our HOA Committees?

One of them is Tiya Jones, who is the Administrative Assistant to the Architectural Review Committee. In that capacity, she is responsible for collating papers for the meetings, tracking submitted paperwork, taking minutes at the meetings, and making sure everything runs smoothly. She makes sure the applications are complete and tracks them for the committee. She also creates the agendas for the meetings.

In her “spare time,” she can be found helping other team members with setting up rooms for meetings and special events at The Lodge.

Tiya was born in Hemet but grew up in Beaumont and graduated from Beaumont High School. She has worked as a records clerk at a nursing facility and also as a Special Education aide in Moreno Valley. Prior to coming to work at Four Seasons she worked in an Amazon warehouse, a physically and mentally challenging job. She saw a brighter future working at Four Seasons and was hired as a Lodge Attendant in June, 2018.

Tiya is a big sports fan — especially basketball — and is a huge Lakers fan. She enjoys dancing with her girls when she gets home from work. She has two daughters and a son who are enrolled in schools in Beaumont.

Tiya enjoys working here, and says there is a sense of family with her colleagues. She enjoys being part of the team, helping others, and especially helping the residents of Four Seasons.

So, the next time you see Tiya at The Lodge, give her a big smile and a thank you! ~ Sharon Bond

DID YOU KNOW that the Kopper Kettle Bistro menu is easily accessible on our website fourseasonsbeaumont.org? Log in and while on the Welcome page, the Bistro tab is in the middle of the page, directly under the picture. Click on it to view the menu. And it is interactive, meaning one can easily click on menu sections and it will take you directly to that section, whether it be breakfast, lunch, or dinner. Similarly, if you are on your phone, you can click the Bistro's number and call them directly. How easy is that?

DID YOU KNOW that the walking trails map is available at both The Lodge front desk and on our website? Just ask for it at the desk or log onto the website and click on the blue General tab. Look for additional community maps and click on Streets & Walking Trails (with addresses). Now you have no excuse not to get outside and take a hike!

DID YOU KNOW the latest winner of the website treasure hunt is Tia May? The icon has now been moved and the website is ready for the hunt to begin again. Go to fourseasonsbeaumont.org and look for the treasure chest logo hiding somewhere on the website. Once found, click on the icon and an email form will appear. Fill out the form and submit. A new winner will be selected each month. Winners can pick up their Kopper Kettle Bistro prize at The Lodge front desk.

DID YOU KNOW that the Potrero Guard House was recently remodeled? After 13 years, the Potrero Guard house has been updated and refreshed. Thanks to the diligent work of the Facilities Committee. The contractor worked two crews day and night for a week to complete this remodel without having to close the gates to residents, vendors, and guests which was a win win for everyone.

The VCT flooring and cove base were removed and replaced with a new black galaxy VCT tile flooring and coordinating cove base.

The walls were patched and painted throughout.

The cabinets in the front work space of the guardhouse were removed and replaced with custom built (at no additional cost) cabinetry of a taller height to better serve the Guards who primarily stand to work.

The counter tops were replaced as well with a coordinating black galaxy granite.

Spreading Gratitude in Four Seasons

We are newbies of a year, and have never looked back as we enjoy our "paradise" here at the Seasons. A godsend to us is the Bistro. Love the daily movies and look forward to our seasonal Lodge decorations. ~ Hal W.

Our thanks to the person who put away (from the curb) our empty trash bin and put it by the side door so it would not be obvious to the passerby that we were not home. This is what I love in this community. We thought we could get home that Tuesday evening or early next morning. Eduardo & Lagrimas D.

Thank you to Nigel and Christi who have been generous neighbors, donating rose bushes for our yard, creating a banner for my jewelry business and always wearing a smile and offering their kindness. Anonymous

Thank you to the Social Committee for the wonderful events you plan. Always fun and well done! Thank you, Bob, for once again making the lobby so welcoming with your work of art. ~ Rob and Sue T.

Prize winning biscuits at the Bistro. Good fit for Four Seasons. Happy with our new Bistro! Don H.

Thank you to the Four Seasons angels who found my bracelet and turned it in to The Lodge front desk. You are a blessing to me and this community. Thank you sincerely. ~ Claudia

While we are blessed with many wonderful neighbors, we'd like to make a special note to thank Dale and Linda. Whenever we're out for more than an hour or so they visit with, play with, and sometimes walk with our dog Kai. We appreciate them so very much! ~ Bruce and Nanette

As a newbie, have been waiting for the Bistro to open. Wow! The wait was well worth it. Renew the contract for five years! Love all aspects of choices. Thank you. ~ Hal, Kirk, Joni

~ Don H.

Thank you to the Board of Directors for your great choice with the Kopper Kettle Bistro. Yummy! ~ Carol P.

If you have seen an act of kindness or have received one, please share with the community. Let's spread gratitude! Just go to The Lodge lobby and fill out a gratitude note and put in the box marked "The Box of Gratitude." Thank you.

REVIEWS

"I came into Marketplace Physical Therapy after injuring my back from a car accident. From the front receptionist Katherine all the way up to Dr. Courtney, this place has the greatest staff. The aide's here are all very supportive and encourage you to do your best."

-Kelly McCarthy

"I cannot speak highly enough of this practice. All the staff are very knowledgeable and provide a genuine care of their patients. I am glad I found this place."

-Don Stuart

"I'm so glad I found this place! The staff here is really nice and the facility is super clean with new equipment. I had shoulder surgery 6 weeks ago and have been coming here for about a month now and I've already seen tremendous progress. I still have a long ways to go till I'm fully healed but I trust DR. Almond Crusted Tilapia

By Irene Welker

Tired of bland soft foods? Want to take your food to another level? Adding a crunchy texture to soft foods can change good food to great. I usually use a panko crumb coating when baking fish, but decided to try ground almonds. Almonds have a higher protein content than bread crumbs and are gluten free. You can purchase ground almonds or easily make your own by pulsing for about 30 seconds in a food processor or blender or until coarsely ground. Be careful, processing them too long result in nut butter. This dish serves four but the ingredients can be halved to serve two.

INGREDIENTS

- 1 ½ pounds tilapia filets, 5 to 6 ounces each
- Salt and pepper to taste
- Vegetable oil or cooking spray to coat pan
- 4 to 6 tablespoons unsalted butter, melted (enough to coat the fish)
- ½ tablespoon Dijon mustard
- 1 teaspoon garlic powder
- ½ cup finely chopped almonds
- ½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
- Optional garnish: lemon wedges and chopped parsley

DIRECTIONS

- Preheat the oven to 375 degrees. Line a rimmed baking sheet with foil or parchment paper and coat with cooking spray or vegetable oil. Set aside.
- Pat the fish dry with a paper towel. Season both sides of the fish with salt and pepper. Set aside.
- Mix the butter, mustard and garlic powder together in a small bowl. Set aside.
- Mix the Parmesan cheese and chopped almonds in a small bowl.
- Dip a filet in the butter mixture and then roll in the almond mixture to coat one side, pressing firmly to make sure the mixture adheres to the fish. Place crusted side up on the prepared baking sheet. Repeat with the remaining tilapia filets.
- Bake in the oven until the topping is golden brown, the flesh is opaque and the fish flakes easily, about 12 minutes.
- Transfer to a serving dish. Garnish with lemon wedges and parsley.
- Suggested sides: cauliflower puree or rice, roasted carrots or sautéed green beans.

NOVEMBER WORD SEARCH

All the clues United States Vice Presidents. They are their given first names (i.e.: Richard Cheney not Dick Cheney). Also, if they used a middle initial it was eliminated. i.e.: Chester A. Arthur is just Chester Arthur. Good luck and have fun! Find the words in the grid. Words can go horizontally, vertically, and diagonally in all eight directions.

ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

All submissions to ARC are carefully reviewed and considered based on the individual merits of the proposed work on a case-by-case basis in light of specific implications of location and impact on surroundings. ARC approves the application and plans as submitted. If changes are needed we consult with the homeowner and change that application to reflect each and every change. These become part of the application.

Once the project is completed, a Schedule C form must be submitted advising the ARC that the work has been completed. ARC then meets with the homeowner to verify that the project is complete and records the work done for future reference.

Recently ARC has encountered several instances where the work completed is not what was on the plans. We have seen situations where some of the planned work was not done; more work was done than shown on the plan and some situations where the work done was different than what was submitted. When this happens the ARC is unable to approve the work done and requires a new application and may deny approval of the work done if it doesn't meet the Guidelines. As stated in the architectural guidelines, failure to obtain the necessary approval from the ARC, or failure to complete the work in conformity with the plans approved by the ARC, may constitute a violation of the CC&Rs and require modification or removal of any work at owner's expense.

To review, every application also referred to as a Schedule A requires:

- A completed Schedule A form

- A signed Schedule B form – the only required signature is the homeowner
- Drawings and details of the proposed work showing locations, along with elevation depicting the dimensions of all structures
- Description of all materials to be used, including colors, textures and character in sufficient detail to enable ARC to assess the proposed work. Samples are preferred when possible
- Drainage plans
- Landscape drawings
- Photos and/or brochures of items such as patio covers, screen doors, window awnings, prefabricated structures, storage units, fountains fire pits and statuary
- A photo of the lot as it currently exists
- A completed check list signed by the homeowner
- Any other information or documentation deemed necessary by ARC in evaluating the work

Please remember that you are responsible for each step of this process. You may not pass this responsibility to a contractor or other person. Be wary of any contractor or neighbor who advises you that they will submit any part of the application for you. Also be wary of any one who advises you to skip this process or that you can do what you want and ask for forgiveness or a variance. The community guidelines are very clear.

If you have any questions, please contact me. ~ Steve Cooley, (801) 815-5302, cooleyaudit@gmail.com

COMMUNITY PLANNING & TRANSITION COMMITTEE

We need your ideas! Do you have a suggestion for what to do with our unallocated land space within Four Seasons? Want to see an archery field? A communal garden? Badminton court? Send your ideas to our chair, Colin Taylor, at Colin@yorkshire-house.com.

We are continuing to fulfill our charter to address the HOA takeover from K. Hovnanian which is expected to occur at the conclusion of 2019.

We have a number of research projects currently under way:

- Fenced-off leash area for dogs
- Ballroom extension at storage end to include catering area and workspace
- On-site storage facilities, considering six options to date
- Outdoor events and activities facilities
- Amphitheater improvements
- Solar energy for electrical generation and/or pool heating at The Lodge and The Courts
- Master Plan to address future community needs
- Transition Plan to address the shift from the K. Hovnanian to our HOA
- Study of under-utilized areas in our physical plant
- Organization of HOA documents, including digitization of construction drawings
- Management of conservancy areas, walking trails, water courses

- Long term maintenance plans for buildings, grounds, streets, utilities, lighting and landscaping

We welcome homeowners' interest. Our meetings are held at 9 am on the fourth Thursday of the month in the RCN Conference Room. Please come visit us. ~ Johanna Ballard, classicalharmonies@gmail.com

FINANCE COMMITTEE

The Finance Committee held its regular meeting on Oct. 1. The financial statement for August was reviewed and recommended for BOD approval. Highlights of the August financial report follows.

Total Assets are $9,528,555 including checking $614,106 and reserve assets of $7,433,557. Operating money market and CDs totaled $1,291,967. Total Liabilities currently are $273,762 and Total Equity of $1,778,806 is a surplus balance. There was a net income gain for the month of $19,245. Front yard cost center expenses were over budget by $132 and Springdale cost center expenses were over budget by $1,539. The overall budget variance continues to be attributed to several line items that have had lower utilization/expenses associated during this time period, e.g., water, tree trimming, and landscaping but are expected to increase in the coming months.

Thirteen proposals were reviewed. Eleven proposals were recommended for board approval, one was withdrawn by the Tech Committee and one was not recommended for approval as it requires BOD guidance. Six committee persons and Board Liaisons, Ed Paules and Jolene Cooley, were present. There is an opening on the Finance Committee. If you are interested, please come to our next meeting on Nov. 26, 1 pm in the RCN Conference Room. ~ Barry Ginnetti

FACILITIES COMMITTEE

The Breckenridge gate is close to completion. K. Hovnanian is installing the gate arms, transponder, and the pedestrian FOBS, but not an entrance keypad. The gate access will be by transponder only. The Facilities Committee will present bids for the installation of cameras, speed hump and rumble strips at the gate area.

The landscape lighting at The Lodge facility has to be updated due to electrical issues and age of the system. The Board approved the proposal for Horizon Electric to replace the lighting. The 102 landscape lights including ground, tree and flag pole lighting will be replaced with LED lighting fixtures. The vendor will also repair or replace any faulty wiring. The conversion to LED lights will provide savings in electricity and maintenance costs.

The much needed refurbishment to the interior of the Potrero gate house is complete. The gate house received new flooring, baseboards, repairs to drywall and paint. New cabinets and countertops were also installed.

The renovation of the plaster and coping at The Summit spa have been completed. Wall-mounted fans were installed at the Aerobics Room in the Spa building.

The Facilities Committee meets in the RCN building on the second Wednesday of the month at 10 am. We always welcome residents to join us and share their ideas or concerns.

We currently have several positions open on the Facilities Committee for anyone interested in serving our community. ~ Bruce Lewis

LANDSCAPE COMMITTEE

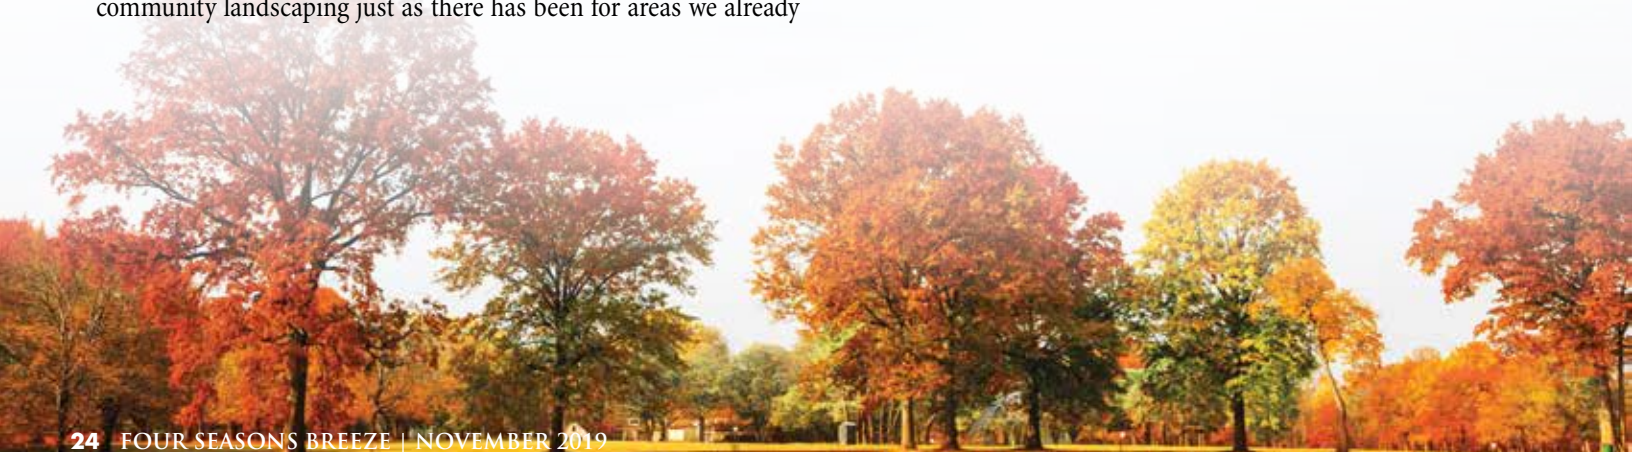

K. Hovnanian, the developer of our community, will soon complete construction. As many of you know, all homes in Phase E (the area east of Four Seasons Circle and North of Breckenridge) have been completed and work on the lots previously occupied by the Sales Office is nearing completion. In addition, work on landscaping by the developer not far behind.

Once the builder has completed development activity, the HOA (that's us) will be responsible for the maintenance and improvements of all community property. This responsibility will include the landscaping of the common areas.

There will be a formal handover process for the remaining community landscaping just as there has been for areas we already control. The builder will meet with the management company, the Landscape Committee, and the appropriate landscape contractor(s). The purpose of the handover is to be sure that what the developer turns over matches the plans for the community; we need to identify any difference between "planned as" and "build as." We want to avoid issues that have occurred in the past such as plant substitution or discrepancies in irrigation pipe sizes.

The committee will add the new areas to the ones we already walk every Friday to be sure that the community remains as attractive and inviting as it was when we moved here. ~ Kirk Freyermuth, kafreyer@frontier.com

SAFETY COMMITTEE

Fall is here. The air is cooler. The days are shorter and the nights are longer. Remember - Daylight Savings time starts on Nov. 3, so don't forget to set your clocks back one hour.

Many of our residents walk as a main source of exercise along with their furry friends.

With the weather changing, it is a great time to get out and walk. If you are an early riser and a nice morning walk is something you enjoy, the Safety Committee wants to remind you that the mornings can be very cold. Check your weather app before leaving. If the temperatures are 35 degrees or below, be careful as our sidewalks and streets may have a thin layer of ice. Waiting until the sun is up and the temperature is a little warmer will make your walk safer. If you are still working and leave early in the morning you may notice that many residents are out walking and enjoying our great community. Please slow down and watch for pedestrians. This is for your safety as well as the safety of our residents who are out walking and enjoying our community.

If you love to walk in the evening, it is getting dark early. Please wear light-colored clothing and possibly even have a reflective jacket/vest and shoes. Reflective tape works also. This will help drivers see you as you are walking and crossing the streets. Always carry a flashlight, this will light your path, help alert drivers that you are walking. Many thanks to avid walkers Donna and Bruce Lewis for their input.

Drivers, please remember that our speed limit is 30 mph. Remind your guests as well as workers and vendors that the speed limit is 30 mph. Please stop at all stop signs and yield to traffic in the circle when approaching and entering the roundabouts. Reminder: When entering roundabouts, it is a right turn only, turning left into a roundabout is very dangerous. Be safe.

The Safety Committee meets on the second Tuesday of the month at 10 am in the RCN Conference Room. All residents are welcome to attend. ~ Anita Worthen

SPECIALIZING IN MEDICARE PLANS FOR 30+ YEARS

MEDICARE BENEFICIARIES OPEN ENROLLMENT BEGINS OCTOBER 15 THROUGH DECEMBER 7

There are more changes in Medicare Benefits than in past years. It is very important to take your time and get "all the facts." A plan that met your needs for 2019 may not for 2020. Let me assist you in evaluating what options would be best for your unique health care needs.

Call me to secure a one-on-one appointment beginning in October.

Have you recently turned 65? Are you new to the area? What do you like about your present Health Coverage? What would you like to change? If you like your present coverage, call me to insure your benefits are still as comprehensive & cost saving as in past years. I am an Independent Insurance Agent. I do not represent a specific Insurance Company or Specific Medical Group. I do not work for Medicare. I represent you and your health care needs. Be prepared, know your options, and make the right choice for you. If your present Health Plan still suits you for 2020, I will recommend you do not change.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

Thanks to all participants for coming to the performance of magician Anthony Hernandez, Master of Illusion and Comedy, on Oct. 26. Special thanks to Patty Spinosa and Joyce Butler for co-chairing this event and volunteers who helped bring it all together. It was a great time.

Currently, the Social Committee is very busy planning our New Year's Eve Party scheduled for Dec. 31. Tickets go on sale Nov. 4, so please update your calendar and watch for posters with all the details. You will hear more in the December Breeze.

Pam Morales, sadly, has resigned as the Chairperson of our Social Committee. Pam will be sorely missed, however, we do have a nominee recommended by the Social Committee members. At present we need to have her approved by the Board before announcing her name.

As for the Breeze, I will begin writing our articles to keep each of you informed on what the Social Committee has done and what we are planning. Thank you for your ongoing support! ~Joyce Hogue, jhogue54@gmail.com

Get The Joke is a simple contest... somewhere in this issue is a "joke" ad, article or other notice. You'll know it when you see it — it will be silly, over-the-top ridiculous or just plain goofy — and hopefully it will bring a smile to your face. When you find it, simply cut out and complete the box below and return to The Lodge Front Desk before the 9th of the month. One correct entry will be chosen at random to win a gift card to the Kopper Kettle Bistro. Happy hunting!

THIS MONTH'S WINNER: TINA CANON

YOUR COMMENTS

Almost counted "Jaws." He was quite the monster in his day. ~ Tina C

Very clever! Loved the popcorn eating monster best! ~ Carole J.

No monsters here at Four Seasons. Maybe Sun Lakes? ~ Harriet H.

Love the monster game! I wasn't sure if that catfish should have been counted! ~ Claudia R.

I like the change in finding the joke going for monsters instead. Great job, Breeze! ~ Linda Kale

Loved looking for the monsters throughout the Breeze. Makes a person read each article. Always look forward to the Breeze arriving in the mail. ~ Barbara M.

The monster search really made you read the Breeze from cover to cover. ~ Martin R.

I had fun looking for the monsters! Love this magazine - thanks for doing this for us! ~ David J.

Very clever with the monsters. Adds to the fun of reading the Breeze. ~ Marianne B.

I love the colors in the Breeze and the Daily Report. And also the little games that you add. ~ Mary T.

I can imagine all the little cuties on the Four Seasons dance floor doing the Monster Mash. ~ Mary B.

Love to read the Breeze. Very informative! Like the fishing article. Thank you staff! ~ Bob B.

I like the "hunt" idea for a change although I'm always entertained by the funny ads, clubs, etc you come up with. ~ Shelley M

I thought the creatures all over the magazine were really cute. Then I realized it was a drawing. The Breeze magazine is very professional. I love it! ~ Regina T.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

Huge ceramic turkey platters and orange pumpkins, beautiful blue and silver menorahs and high holy days, fragrant pine cones, Christmas trees and Santas remind us that the holidays are approaching. During these busy days, residents of Four Seasons need to be aware of safety. Our last Wednesday Neighborhood Watch meeting included speakers who shared valuable ideas for holiday safety.

Chris Ramos from the Beaumont Police Department, Tracy Crow, a former police officer, and others gave examples of strategies so that we residents do not become victims of holiday crime. Here are just a few ideas to remember in case you missed the meeting.

1. Avoid being distracted in a store parking lot when on your phone.
2. Never leave items on car seats where visible.
3. Shop during daylight hours whenever possible.
4. Never, ever place a purse in a cart.

5. After loading items in a trunk, move your car before continuing to shop.
6. When online, do not “store” or “remember” your credit card number unless you are using a very reliable site.
7. Ask a neighbor to watch for your deliveries if you are not at home to receive them.
8. Set up alerts on your credit cards to spot fraudulent purchases.
9. Protect credit cards with an RFD wallet or sheath (even foil works).
10. Always be aware of those around you. Eyeball people!

Please join us for our monthly meetings on the second Wednesday of the month in the Ballroom at 10 am. Our next meeting will be on Safe Driving with the CHP.

Remember, if you see something, say something by calling the Beaumont Police Dept. (951) 769-8500. ~ Andi Henderson (918) 497-6491

Seventh Annual Turkey Tackle

The Seventh Annual Turkey Tackle will be Nov. 16 at 2 pm at The Summit putting green. Last year’s winner, pictured left, was Bob Corkran. He tackled two turkeys and, per the rules of the event, had kept them as pets for the past year. He named them Turkelicious and Jerry. They will be welcomed into the flock of this year’s turkey entries. Once again, turkeys are being provided by San Jacinto Turkeys-R-Us.

In case this is your first year, the rules are simple: Ten turkeys are released on the putting green and all resident participants then chase them. The first resident to successfully wrangle and subdue a turkey (or two!) will then go home with their new pet and will raise them indoors for year. They will then bring their turkey(s) back the following year to participate with the new crop of turkeys.

All turkeys who are not tackled will be released into the conservation area. No turkeys are harmed in this event. ~ Stan McGobble

TAILS & TRAILS - ALL PETS

Pet Safety Tips for the Holidays

The holiday season is upon us, and many pet parents plan to include their furry companions in the festivities. As you gear up for the holidays, it is important to steer your pets clear of unhealthy treats, toxic plants and dangerous decorations.

Be Careful with Seasonal Plants and Decorations

- Oh, Christmas Tree: Securely anchor your Christmas tree so it doesn't tip and fall, causing possible injury to your pet. Do not let pets drink the tree water, which may contain bacteria that can cause stomach upset.
- Avoid Mistletoe & Holly: Holly, when ingested, can cause pets to suffer nausea, vomiting and diarrhea. Opt for, just as jolly, artificial plants made from silk or plastic, or choose a pet-safe bouquet.
- Tinsel-less Town: Kitties love this sparkly, light-catching "toy" that's easy to bat around and carry in their mouths. But a nibble can lead to a swallow, which can lead to an obstructed digestive tract.
- Wired Up: Keep wires, batteries and glass or plastic ornaments out of paws' reach. A wire can deliver a potentially lethal electrical shock and a punctured battery can cause burns.

Avoid Holiday Food Dangers

- Skip the Sweets: By now you know not to feed your pets chocolate and anything sweetened with xylitol. Holiday cookies and candies are not good for your pets.

- Leave the Leftovers: Fatty, spicy foods, as well as bones, should not be fed to your furry friends. As a rule, pets should not be fed human food.
- Careful with Cocktails: If your celebration includes adult holiday beverages, be sure to place your unattended alcoholic drinks where pets cannot get to them.
- Selecting Special Treats: Looking to stuff your pet's stockings? Stick with dog chew toys that are basically indestructible. Surprise kitty with a new ball that's too big to swallow, a stuffed catnip toy, or the interactive cat dancer.

Also, as you count down to the New Year, keep in mind that noisy poppers can terrify your pets, and many of them are also scared of fireworks. Finally, remember to give your furry family members their own quiet space to retreat to, complete with fresh water and a place to snuggle, away from the holiday season hubbub. ~ Vivian Walker, vivr@sbcglobal.net

DOG OWNERS GROUP

Winter is approaching, days are getting shorter and cooler, daylight savings time is disappearing and so time to adjust our pack walk schedule – see the end of this article.

Despite frequent and pervasive reminders to slow down driving speed and to watch for pedestrians, and warnings to wear reflective clothing at night, to use crosswalks and to look both ways if you are a pedestrian, accidents continue to happen and to cause serious injuries to residents crossing the street.

I have come close to being hit while walking though an intersection at least five times in the last couple of years, as recently as last week, while walking through the White Sands intersection along Four Seasons Circle. Many dog owners have reported similar experiences to me.

I wear a bright orange safety vest while walking so that no one can say they didn't see me.

Please be careful out there and only cross the street, particularly Four Seasons Circle, at an intersection. Be courteous and do not cross mid-block.

Pack Walks: All dogs and non-dog owners are welcome and we practice techniques to calm barking dogs

- Saturday morning, 8 am, meet in front of The Lodge building (walks last 30 to 45 minutes)
- Wednesday evening, 4 pm, meet at The Summit parking lot (walks last 15 to 30 minutes)
- Please, no retractable leashes

BIRDING CLUB

This month's Club communication is devoted entirely to our very own endangered species, the Least Bell's Vireo, and summarizes the results of a survey we conducted this past summer. Each survey followed the same route covering all of Trails A and B, resulting in two duplicate counts of 4,900 linear feet of our riparian habitat. We conducted a total of 42 surveys between March 4 and Sept. 26, 2019 and plotted the counts (see graph).

The survey found that the first vireo arrived on March 24 \pm 1 day; during late March through early May, the number increased to a high of 7; 5 mated pairs succeeded in breeding through the end of July; and numbers dwindled for a month and half after that until the final bird departed on Sept. 17 \pm 2 days. Thus, each mated pair territory occupied about 1,000 linear feet of streamside riparian habitat. Email steve.h.edelman@gmail.com for a pdf copy of our full report. ~ Steve Edelman

BIRD OF THE MONTH

There are two geographically separated breeding populations of Bell's Vireo: a large eastern population that breeds from southeastern California eastward, and a small southwestern population that breeds in southwestern California and northwestern Baja California (see range map). The southwestern population is composed of one subspecies, the Least Bell's Vireo (Vireo bellii pusillus). The Least Bell's Vireo is grayish above and whitish below with faint pale "spectacles" around the eyes and pale wingbars (pictured).

The Least Bell's Vireo requires riparian habitat for breeding and was formerly abundant in riparian woodlands of southwestern California and northwestern Baja. It was reduced to just 300 pairs by 1986 due to loss of riparian habitat and brood parasitism by the Brown-headed Cowbird, thus was listed as an endangered species by the state and federal government. Critical habitat was designated from Santa Barbara to San Diego County, which spurred removal of exotic plants and trapping of cowbirds; by 2004 the vireo population increased to 2,500.

Least Bell's Vireos breed at Four Seasons and likely were established only after the habitat restoration in 2006 (see Len Tavernetti's articles in the March 2018 and September 2019 issues of the Breeze). Thus, everyone who lives in the Four Seasons Beaumont community has helped the recovery of the Least Bell's Vireo by choosing to live in one of the few retirement communities that has a conservation easement which, according to the Birding Club's 2019 count, created breeding habitat for five pairs of Least Bell's Vireos. ~ Steve Edelman

BOOK CLUB

We meet on the second Tuesday of each month at 9:30 am in the RCN room #3. Newcomers are always welcome, even if you haven't read the book.

The Book Club selection for November is Eleanor Oliphant is Completely Fine by Gail Honeyman. Here is a brief description of the book from Amazon.com: "Meet Eleanor Oliphant: She struggles with appropriate social skills and tends to say exactly what she's thinking. Nothing is missing in her carefully timetabled life of avoiding social interactions, where weekends are punctuated by frozen pizza, vodka, and phone chats with Mummy. But everything changes when Eleanor meets Raymond, the bumbling and deeply unhygienic IT guy from her office. When she and Raymond together save Sammy, an elderly gentleman who has fallen on the sidewalk, the three become the kinds of friends who rescue one another from the lives of isolation they have each been living. And it is Raymond's big heart that will ultimately help Eleanor find the way to repair her own profoundly damaged one."

Please join us when we discuss this book on Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 9:30 am. Joanna Olsen will be leading the discussion. For those of you who like to read ahead, our book for December is scheduled to be Before We Were Yours by Lisa Wingate. For more information, please contact Micki Rosen at michelesrosen@gmail.com. ~ Micki Rosen

PERFORMING ARTS CLUB

November always makes me think of Thanksgiving. This year, I want to give thanks to Four Seasons Beaumont and all of the residents who live here. I had no idea what my retired life would be prior to moving here eight-and-a-half years ago. It turns out that my life after my career in software sales and sales management is wonderful. Being part of The Performing Arts Club has given me a new purpose. I've found that I love being a "sit down/stand up" comedienne, an actor, singer, and, most recently, the producer of our Radio Theater Show. Being on stage is exciting but having great audiences is exhilarating. I would like to thank everyone who attends our performances. You make our shows come alive. So, please keep on showing up because we work hard to bring you FREE entertainment several times per year. I also encourage you to participate in our many shows, as it's so much fun and the people involved are friendly and welcoming. If you are interested in attending any of our meetings, they are held on the fourth Tuesday every month, except December, at 4 pm in the RCN Conference Room. We'd love to meet you.

Our last show of the year is soon approaching. The Holiday Show is titled, A Country Christmas. There are two shows to choose between, Friday, Dec. 6 or Saturday, Dec. 7. This is a family friendly show with singers, dancers, a running comedy skit, and of course, our incredible choir, The Four Season Singers. This performance is being produced by two very talented people, John Noonan and Pat Wayne. This show is free of charge and tickets will be available on Monday, Nov. 25 at 10 am. You have a choice between the Friday or Saturday show, with a maximum of eight tickets per household. This show is always a sell-out, so please get your tickets early. If you acquire tickets that you later realize you can't use, I urge you to please return them to The Lodge front desk, so those still looking for tickets can use them. Looking forward to seeing you there.

Next month, I will share with you our 2020 shows and dates. Have your calendars ready to mark the shows you have interest in attending. Hopefully, it will be all of them!

Again, my thanks to my fellow performers and you, our audience, for making this club so very enjoyable.

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact me. Email, terimk@verizon.net, home (951) 992-9156 or cell (602) 309-0819. ~ Teri Meyers-Kelman

SEASONED SOLOS

If you are single and enjoy a variety of activities, then Seasoned Solos just might be the group for you. At each meeting we discuss what is going on in the Inland Empire and plan activities for the coming month, from local lunches and dinners to excursions to presidential libraries, the Redlands Bowl, Metro Link trips into LA, and the beach train to San Juan Capistrano. There's not much that we won't consider doing.

We meet on the first Friday of each month in The Lodge Arts & Crafts Room at 6 pm. For further information, call Joyce at (951) 850-3055. ~ Joyce Olson

COUNTER CULTURE CINEMA CLUB

We show films you generally won't find at the Cineplex: documentaries, foreign language films, indie films, and any other smaller, well-reviewed films that don't get wide distribution.

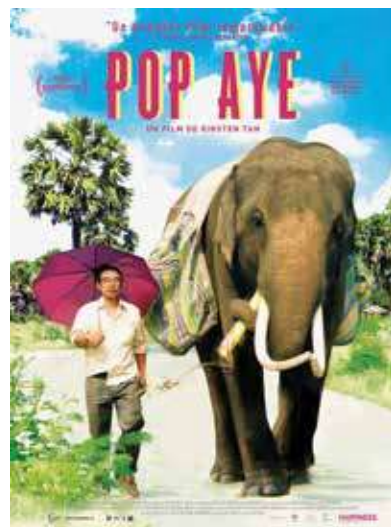

Our first monthly screening, on Sunday, Nov. 10 at 6 pm, is the film 306 Hollywood (USA 2018, 1 hr. 22 min., English). Here is a brief description from IMDb.com: "When two siblings undertake an archaeological excavation of their late grandmother's house, they embark on a magical-realist journey in search of what life remains in the objects we leave behind."

Our second monthly screening, on Sunday, Nov. 24 at 6 pm, is the film Pop Aye (Thailand 2017, 1 hr. 44 min., English subtitles). Here is a brief description from IMDb.com: "On a chance encounter, a disenchanted architect bumps into his long-lost elephant on the streets of Bangkok. Excited, he takes his elephant on a journey across Thailand, in search of the farm where they grew up together."

All of our screenings are followed by lively discussion about the film; we'd love to have you join us. The Lodge Theatre has very limited seating, so if you're interested in our screenings, come early; we hope to see you there. Please note that all films announced are subject to availability. If you have any questions about the Counter Culture Cinema Club or want to recommend a film, please email Micki Rosen at michelesrosen@gmail.com. ~ Micki Rosen

COMPUTER & TECHNOLOGY CLASS

Last month, our guest speaker Bob Gostischas, demonstrated how important it is to be an 'informed user' of the computer and the Internet. Bob talked about some programs that will keep you and your computer safe and secure. He said that knowing more about your computer will decrease the likelihood of you becoming a victim of the many common scams that await the uninformed.

In his presentation, Bob stressed the importance of knowing about the potential pitfalls and/or loopholes in computer Internet privacy and security; and how ignorance too often leads to computer infections, identity theft, and worse. He covered some of the threats that hide in unexpected places, discussed the difference between 'privacy' and 'security,' and suggested what we can do to enjoy both. He pointed out some basic computer safety tips and simple procedures that will increase security, and advised everyone of the benefits of installing a free version of Avast Antivirus software on their computer(s) to protect against viruses, worms, and Trojan rootkits.

In the event you are unable to attend our monthly meetings, go to our Four Seasons Computer Group website and download material from previous presentations. For more information, contact Larry Workman at workman.larry@gmail.com. ~ Larry Workman

TAKE A HIKE CLUB

Another Take A Hike walk on our very favorite beach, Crystal Cove, Laguna Beach. The perfect weather and lower tide allowed for a long beach walk, tide pool gazing, and ocean wading. Lots of construction is happening on the restoration of several historic beach houses located along the bottom of the cliffs. Our beloved Beachcomber on the Sand restaurant was closed for one day, our day. We were not daunted, we were hungry enough to walk up the 76 stairs to The Shake Shack, with many bicyclists, beach walkers, and construction workers dining with us as we gazed over the ocean views and felt the gentle breezes. Next year we will repeat this magical day.

PHOTOGRAPHY CLUB

Our mission to learn, share and have fun with photography starts each meeting with an intro to new members and upcoming events, a segment of tips and tricks, and presentation on format, style or gear use. We continue with sharing of the previous month's photo challenge works and the selection of the next month's photo challenge, an open discussion on outings, and topic selection for the upcoming months.

Our first photo outing was on Sept. 30 at Crystal Cove State Park where we photographed sea life in the tide pools at low tide. It was a wonderful outing. We drove over, stopped at Image One Camera in Riverside to start our Santa wish list, then on to the beach to wade in the water and shoot, followed by a nice dinner and sunset on the beach. In attendance were Jacque Sneddon, Roxanna Morrow, and ReNae Stueve.

Our September meeting was well attended. We discussed upcoming challenges, went through the demonstration Larry Colby provided on sensor cleaning and reviewed our Black and White challenge submissions. Examples are above.

The October challenge was Chiaroscuro or to some, Low Key or Rembrandt Lighting.

I have seen a few of the submissions and I can tell you the group is having fun with this one!

We also discussed and agreed that our members would benefit greatly with an additional Technical Work Group. This work group would focus on the Post Processing tools available in the digital format we are all using. Remember the dark room days? Hours and hours of dodging and burning? Today it is often a mouse click away in LightRoom and many other software tools. So, we are going to hold demonstrations and software reviews in the work group. More on that in the coming months as we work out the details and schedule.

I can't wait to see what is in store for the Four Seasons Photography Club! Please drop in to see what all the excitement is about. We meet on the third Tuesday of every month in the RCN Main Room at 6:30 pm. ~ ReNae Stueve, renaestueve@outlook.com

TRAVEL GROUP

Thank you for making our group one of the largest here at Four Seasons. We may not see you at every meeting, but we know you're out there! Keep sending us suggestions and participating in our events. How many of you made it to our October Travel Trivia Challenge? Hopefully you had fun testing your travel and geography prowess while finding out about travel opportunities and socializing with friends and travel buddies.

Don't forget our next get-together — our holiday potluck brunch and meeting in The Lodge Ballroom from 10 am to noon on Nov. 16. Please contact Irene Welker at irenewelker55@gmail.com to sign up for the potluck. After our November meeting, we will pick up again in the new year with our first meeting in the RCN Main Room at 10 am on Jan. 18, 2020.

Meanwhile, keep connecting on our Facebook page — Four Seasons Beaumont Travel Group. It's a good place to plan carpools to events, discuss like destination travel ideas, get feedback on excursions, and to stay connected.

Happy and safe travels to you all. For trip information and questions, contact Irene Welker at irenewelker55@gmail.com. For email notifications and updates, email Sharon Bond at sjbond2013@gmail.com. ~ Kris Corbett

WRITERS' CLUB

My Experience Writing a Family History

When I began my search for forgotten ancestors, back in the early 1990s, I did not think I would end up authoring a couple of books and even a blog about that quest.

It all began with on-site and on-line archival searches based on my own recollections. Later trips to small towns and remote places (in Venezuela, Colombia, Spain, Germany, and England) often became adventures by themselves. The search even meant probing the arcane records of my DNA.

The pursuit continued through many after-dinner conversations with elderly relatives. Those usually wine-fueled events helped clear mental cobwebs and loosen tongues. The letter and email exchanges that followed — and still persist — added personal touches plus historical, political, and social background to the emerging tale. Family reunions and a long-lived family newsletter provided opportunities to distribute reports on the ancestral research and to get feedback.

The first book project arose from the resulting hoard of essays and initially had the extended family as the sole intended audience. After a few years, I had in my hands a 450-page tightly-typed manuscript in Spanish. Entre Piedras y Papeles is both a narrative and a database with many photographs and extensive documentation.

Towards the end of that book, I state:

“We become vague remembrances to our grandchildren and unconscious ‘forgets’ to theirs, except perhaps for those memories we – either on purpose or by chance – plant along the way...”

What memory could I plant? I decided I would meet those future generations more than halfway — by writing a book in their mother tongue. Rather than a straight translation into English, it had to be a lighter reading that preserved the spirit of the original book: Rescuing Ancestral Memories. Encounters after the Sunset is a 200-page collection of biographical sketches of a few fading ghosts in my ancestral tree and side-branches, as well as “...an epic story, spanning three continents and as many centuries.”

The two books on family history earned first place recognition in non-fiction at the 2016 and 2018 International Latino Book Awards (ILBA). Now, I have ahead of me the writing of a Spanish version of those Encuentros tras el Ocaso.

Come join us at the Writers' Club meetings on the second Tuesday of the month in the RCN Conference Room at 1:30 pm. ~ Ricardo Suárez-Gärtner, resuarezg@aol.com

RAINBOW GROUP

The rainbow is a powerful symbol that represents beauty, balance, peace, and hope. As such, we believe it is a perfect representation for our group. We are residents of Four Seasons Beaumont who also happen to be gay, lesbian, bisexual, or transgender. The rainbow is so perfect because it really fits our group's diversity in terms of race, gender, ages, and beliefs. While we strive to serve the interests of our members, we do welcome all supportive homeowners and encourage everyone to attend any of our functions. We believe you'll enjoy our company.

Everyone leads busy lives (even at our age!) and we often find it difficult to stay connected with our neighbors. Therefore, the Rainbow Group has get-togethers, usually on the fourth Thursday of each month, in The Lodge Game Room at 6 pm. Due to conflicts with Thanksgiving and holiday parties in December, we will have a combined holiday party, pot luck style, most likely in early December. For details on date, time and location, please visit the Four Seasons Pride Facebook page. Our get-togethers are mostly informal social gatherings which give members an opportunity to meet new neighbors, catch up on member and community activities or news, and just chat — no stuffy agenda items, roll calls, or minutes for us!

The Rainbow group also hosts other periodic gatherings for socializing, such as LGBT-themed movie nights in The Lodge Theater, and other events the group may sponsor. Maybe you'd even like to suggest your own activity for the group — we are always open to new ideas. Please direct any questions to Dale at (951)

Heart & Soul Line Dance enjoy the National Day of Dance

HEART & SOUL LINE DANCE

Here we are in November... just one more month and we'll be saying goodbye to 2019. Is it possible? Our line dance group is still going strong. Our more seasoned dancers have been working on some high-level dances and have just about mastered them.

In September, some of our dancers were able to join me at Altis to celebrate National Day of Dance. We showcased some of our more popular dances. The community is still small but gorgeous (they have a bar!). Everyone was very warm and welcoming (photos above).

Our next event is Beaumont Cherry Valley Recreation & Parks District's Winterfest, Dec. 6 and 7. We will begin practicing our showcase dances. Don't miss our holiday party on Dec. 18.

Remember, if you're looking for exercise, join us on Wednesdays at 4 pm for beginners and 5:10 pm for upper level. All dances are broken down. Wear comfortable shoes and bring water. See you on the dance floor! Info, call Priscilla Robles at (909) 239-6464. ~ Priscilla Robles

Step It Up members dancing on Song Bird

STEP IT UP LINE DANCING

Have you ever heard the song Dancing in the Street? Well, that's exactly what we did at our end-of-summer party, thanks to the generosity of "The BAVs," otherwise known as Brenda Florio, AJ Reilly and Valerie Richie, and all of the neighbors on Song Bird. It was an awesome night of dancing and music as well as great food under a beautiful moon-lit sky and streetlight-lit cul de sac. Sorry if it got a little loud in the neighborhood, but there is something so cool about sharing memories with great people who are still young at heart and want to live life to its fullest. We are heading toward our end of the year holiday party on Nov. 15 in the Ballroom, so if you're interested in going contact me no later than Nov. 5 to purchase your dinner ticket. It's $15 for a catered dinner and a great night of music and dancing! As a reminder, classes are held on Mondays starting at 12:30 pm for LD 101 (entry level) and then we the roll into beginning/intermediate line dancing at 1:30 pm. I play all types of music in addition to country thus the name "Step it up." Call me at (949) 326-3133 if you have any questions.

COUNTRY LINE DANCING

The holiday rush and parties begin. What to do first?

Planning ahead and writing things down will help reduce your stress and so will dancing. Dancing is simply exercise to music with choreographed footwork. It takes mental concentration as well as physical coordination. To do all this you need to practice the steps. The more you practice the easier the steps become. With each new dance you learn new steps and the next dance becomes easier.

The Country Line Dancing and More Holiday Party is Nov. 22 in the Ballroom from 4 to 8:30 pm. A buffet dinner will be served at five followed by dancing. Although we primarily dance to county music, we realize not everyone does so. There will be some dance music included for all types of dancing. This is a BYOB event. All class members need to register and pay in class no later than Nov. 8. If you are not a member of the class and wish to attend please call Martha at (714) 345-8588 and you will be placed on a wait list.

Wishing everyone a very happy Thanksgiving. ~ Martha Franck

LET'S DANCE

Our Let's Dance group is excited to announce a FREE LESSON to anyone in Four Seasons who has never taken a lesson with our group before! This free lesson will be available on Monday, Nov. 4, ONLY.

We are learning the Waltz and Viennese Waltz in November and it is an ideal time to come out and give ballroom dancing a try. No obligation, no membership required... just a chance to have fun with your neighbors!

If you have always wanted to learn to dance, this is the first step to a great form of physical and mental exercise while having lots of FUN!

The Waltz is a very easy and graceful dance with flowing, slower movements that couples always enjoy, almost as if floating around the ballroom floor. The Viennese Waltz is a lovely, faster-paced twirling dance (without the worry of becoming dizzy).

We are also excited about our upcoming Christmas Dinner Dance Party on Friday, Dec. 13. Look for the poster in The Lodge now with ticket information. We will be dancing to the amazing sounds of Rhonda & the Showdown and enjoying a catered dinner of Chicken Marsala and Roasted Tri Tip with sides and dessert. Everyone is welcome! Buy your tickets early, as this is a very popular event!

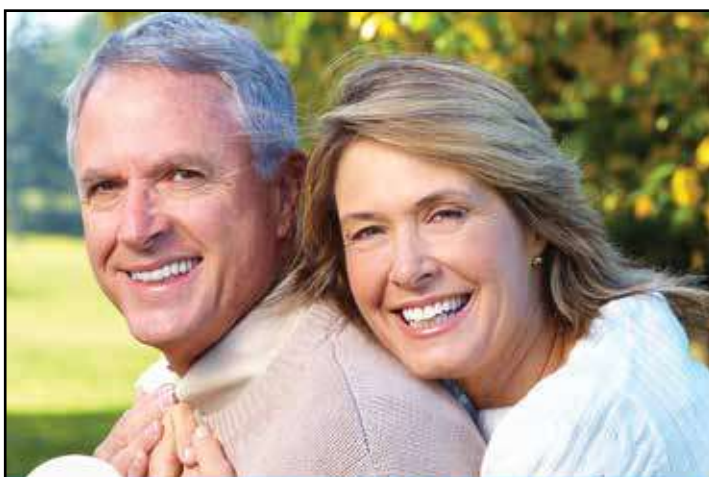

We have found our weekly practice sessions to be very helpful in keeping the steps fresh in our minds. The monthly Dance Party Practice has been a big hit as a fun and supportive way to enjoy our dances in a "Night Club" atmosphere! These are all offered at no charge.

Plan to join us in the Ballroom on Monday, Nov. 4 for your FREE DANCE LESSON if you have never tried our class before. Classes are 6 to 7 pm for beginners and newcomers and 7 to 8 pm for Intermediate and advanced. The cost is $10 per person all other Monday nights with our professional instructors.

It is a great opportunity to meet some new friends and neighbors and get a little exercise at the same time! Hope to see you there!

JEWISH CULTURAL CLUB

NOVEMBER 17! The Jewish Cultural Club wants you to remember Nov. 17. There are two big events to put into your calendar for that date.

One, tickets go on sale for the Dec. 17 Hanukkah Extravaganza in the Lodge Ballroom. Meet us in the The Lodge lobby at 8 am to buy tickets to our biggest ever Hanukkah bash. The tickets cost $7. The party will feature a fabulous Hanukkah nosh (Yiddish for meal). Foods served will be the Hanukkah season's favorite Latkes (AKA potato pancakes), kosher hot dogs, and best of all jelly donuts.

But we're not done yet! We will also have a Kosher wine tasting. The JCC will be assisted by the community's wine experts from Taste d'Vine wine club.

And if that's not enough, there is more. There will be fun entertainment, including Hanukkah songs and comedy, featuring Uncle Fischel. It's a night you won't want to miss.

JCC Film Night

Later on Nov. 17, at 5 pm, the JCC will be showing the funny and ground breaking 1968 film by Mel Brooks, The Producers. The film employs caricature stereotypes to tell a very unique story. It was Brooks' directorial debut, and it launched a career that is unmatched in film comedy.

The evening will start at 5 pm with a dessert potluck. The film will start at 6 pm. This event will be in The Lodge Ballroom. There will be a discussion immediately afterwards, for those who want to stay.

2020 Will be A Year To Remember

In 2020, the JCC will be hosting a series of fun and interesting events. We will be showing a film called The Yankles, with the writer and producer of the film on hand to talk about his experience making the movie. We will have a very unique Passover Seder in April, more movies, and other events to be announced at a later date.

You don't have to be Jewish! As always, everyone is welcome. You don't have to be a MOT (Member of the Tribe). Questions or comments, contact Perry Goldstein at perry.goldstein@gmail.com. Watch for the posters in The Lodge lobby. We hope to see you at our events. ~ Perry Goldstein

WOMEN'S EVENING BIBLE STUDY

Our first year anniversary was in September. We celebrated with a shared dinner, warm fellowship and a guest speaker. She shared with us her devastating, life-threatening illness. She expressed the fear she experienced and the trust she had to have in God. The outcome of her two-year medical struggle and healing is her appreciation that each day of life is precious and a miracle. We were inspired and given much hope by her extraordinary journey.

As we start our second year, I'm truly grateful for the new friendships and the encouragement they have given me throughout the year. It has been challenging at times but the blessings have been greater. Bible study is a time for women of faith to gather together and learn more about God by digging into the Bible. Our study is non-denominational and all ladies are welcomed. I look forward to guiding us through another year of the treasures found in the Word and the practical applications to our individual lives. It is a privilege to pray for one another's needs and we rejoice in answered prayers.

In the following months, we will continue our lessons in the Parables of Jesus. The next ones are "Sower and Four Types of Soil" and "Weeds Among Good Plants."

We meet on the first and third Thursdays, Nov. 7 and 21, from 6:30 to 7:45, in The Lodge Game Room. In December, we will have our Christmas Party on Dec. 12. We take a short break and our first study of the New Year will be on Jan. 16. In February, we will return to our normal schedule.

A sign-up sheet is available in The Lodge. Also, you may email me at baerhuggy@icloud.com. I'm happy to give you information and answer your questions.

INTERCESSORY PRAYER GROUP

Greeting intercessors, friends, and neighbors!

Here we are in the month of November. This is the month of Thanksgiving, blessing, gratitude, and love. This is a time of coming together with family, friends, and neighbors.

We are in a time of great expectation and hope for the new year. We can be optimistic about what is ahead, or be overwhelmed by today's news. The news can depress us, or we can pray and believe that prayer changes things, so why be overwhelmed by what we hear? "Think on things that are just, pure, lovely, whatever thing is of good report if there be any virtue and if there be any praise, think on these things."

We don't have the power to change the world, but we can change the way we think about the world around us. We can change our sorrow into joy by changing our attitude about ourselves and life. So, keep smiling. It looks good on you, believe me, people around will like it, too.

"BELIEVE..." WOMEN'S BIBLE STUDY

Whew! We are almost through the 13 Epistles of Paul in the New Testament! It has been a wonderful journey, and we have all learned so much. In October we finished Philippians and 1 Timothy. In November we will continue with Titus and 2 Timothy, which will bring us to Nov. 22. We will be dark on Nov. 29 in honor of the Thanksgiving holiday.

On December 6 we will have a year's review of all that we have learned this year. We will also discuss how our theme for 2019 inspired us: "Preach Christ; when necessary use words." The class members will also share how they have reached another level in their individual spiritual walk, which has been our class goal this year. Dec. 13 will be our final lesson of the year, followed by our Christmas party in the RCN, with a delicious luncheon, music and a fashion show. We will then be dark until Jan. 3, 2020.

If you are looking for a wonderful women's Bible study to join (or

LIFE GUIDE BIBLE STUDY

This month we will continue our study of the Parables of Jesus, led by Doc Sellars. The parables illustrate some of Jesus' most important teachings and have valuable insights for us in our faith, journey and spiritual growth. We invite all residents to join us for fellowship, discussion, and learning from God's Word. We also support each other in prayer.

We meet in the third section of The Lodge Ballroom every Tuesday evening at 7 pm. Please contact Doc or Letha Sellars with any questions or comments at (951) 797-3302 or docletha72@gmail.com. ~ Doc Sellars

So, wake up in the morning and say, "I am thankful for another day and for all that I have been blessed with." Think about the beautiful home you are living in and your little friend that greets you with wet kisses and let you know that you are loved. Are you going to feel sorry for yourself or are you going to make a joyful noise?

Remember the song "O What a Beautiful Morning" from the Broadway show Oklahoma by Alfred Drake? Here are the lyrics of the first verse:

"There's a bright golden haze on the meadow there's a bright golden haze on the meadow, the corn is as high as an elephant's eye, and it looks like it's climbing clear up to the sky. Oh, what a beautiful mornin'... Oh, what a beautiful day. I've got a beautiful feeling, Everthing's going my way."

Come and join us for prayer on the first Monday of each month at 9 am in the Game Room. Hope to see you. Men are welcome. We meet on Nov. 4 this month. ~ Cookie Bonner; eaglewatchwb@aol.com

AFRICAN AMERICAN CULTURAL CLUB

Talking to Strangers

Malcolm Gladwell, a staff writer for The New Yorker and author of six books uses present-day research in sociology and psychology repeatedly in his writings. His first five books are New York Times Bestsellers. His sixth book, Talking to Strangers: What We Should Know about the People We Don't Know, came out in September, 2019.

In his book, Gladwell says, "...there was a three-year run of police cases from 2014 to 2016 involving the mistreatment of African-Americans. The one that really got to me was the death of Sandra Bland." This took place in the middle of the day; she was leaving her alma mater, Prairie View A&M University in Texas where she had just been hired, when a police officer pulled her over. The entire videotaped encounter gets out of control and ends with her death three days later.

Gladwell chose to write about this incident because it was a high profile case and it showed a typical situation of strangers having a misunderstanding and something going wrong. He said, "The death of Sandra Bland is what happens when a society doesn't know how to talk to strangers."

The police officer totally misinterprets Sandra's actions. She lights

Malcolm Gladwell, journalist, author, speaker

a cigarette and his ego got in the way after he asked her to put it out and she refused. Then he demanded she get out of the car and again she refused asking, "What did I do?" The officer finds himself in a situation he doesn't know how to handle. He makes bogus assumptions about Sandra, who is very distressed, yet the officer feels she's belligerent.

There is a breakdown in communication among the police and African-Americans due to a lack of respect, sensitivity and understanding towards people who have been systematically brutalized for hundreds of years in the United States. It's not uncommon for people to be upset when they get pulled over by the police. When that happens, their emotions can be mistaken by their demeanor. If an officer believes people have to behave the way they think people should behave, the results are extreme. <https://www.gladwellbooks.com/>

CRAFT GROUP

The Craft Group members are working on a number of different projects for the holidays. A recent project, luminaries, is pictured at left. Sometimes we enjoy doing one project as a group and other times we have individual ideas we want to work on. The fun is in sharing ideas and talents and getting to know new neighbors.

Why not join in the fun? We meet in the Arts & Crafts Room on Thursdays at 10 am.

If you have any questions please call Barbara Paules, (951) 845-3608. ~ Barbara Paules

QUILTING ENTHUSIASTS

Join us on the first Sunday of each month from 1 to 4 pm in the Arts & Crafts Room at The Lodge. We sew and share all things quilting. We are busy planning holiday projects. The holidays come so quickly! Mary Moody recently taught us how to make a schlep bag this past month.

The Lodge Arts & Crafts Room is available each Sunday from 1 to 4 to work on individual projects. It is a great space to work on quilting projects, or escape Sunday football!

For information, contact Mary Christelman at ferndalemary@gmail.com. ~ Mary Christelman

CRAFTY CARDMAKERS

If you're looking for a fun and productive afternoon, please join us. We meet on the second and fourth Friday of the month at 1 pm in the Arts & Crafts Room. You will make three beautiful cards all ready to mail. We make cards for all occasions.

For the class, you only need to bring your own glue and scissors, everything else will be provided and the cost is $8.

It is necessary to RSVP early in the week of the class so we will be sure to have enough kits for everyone.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call or email, chorbaparadise@yahoo.com, (951) 849-6336! ~ Maryalice Chorb

CERAMIC CLASS

Our next class will be Saturday, Nov. 2 at 9:30 am. The class is a caulking class where Loretta Ramsey will show us how to bring a cold piece of ceramic to life. This is a great and fun technique that will be lots of fun doing and lots of years of enjoyment after you complete your project. Our new class hours on Wednesdays are 1 to 4 pm.

Ceramics class has something for the novice crafter looking for a new hobby, or someone who has experience and wants to create their own unique design or create pieces for friends and family. We also offer individual projects and classes throughout the year.

Come and join the fun. Drop by the Arts & Crafts Room to see our monthly class schedule and learn more about our upcoming projects. We also meet Wednesdays 1 to 4 pm. Please see class schedule for any exceptions.

Certified instructor and/or an experienced class team leader is available to support your crafting needs. Participation is at your own pace and frequency.

Call Loretta Ramsey at (714) 803-6744 or Brenda Ystrom at (909) 910-1100 for more information. ~ Brenda Ystrom

KNIT & CROCHET GROUP

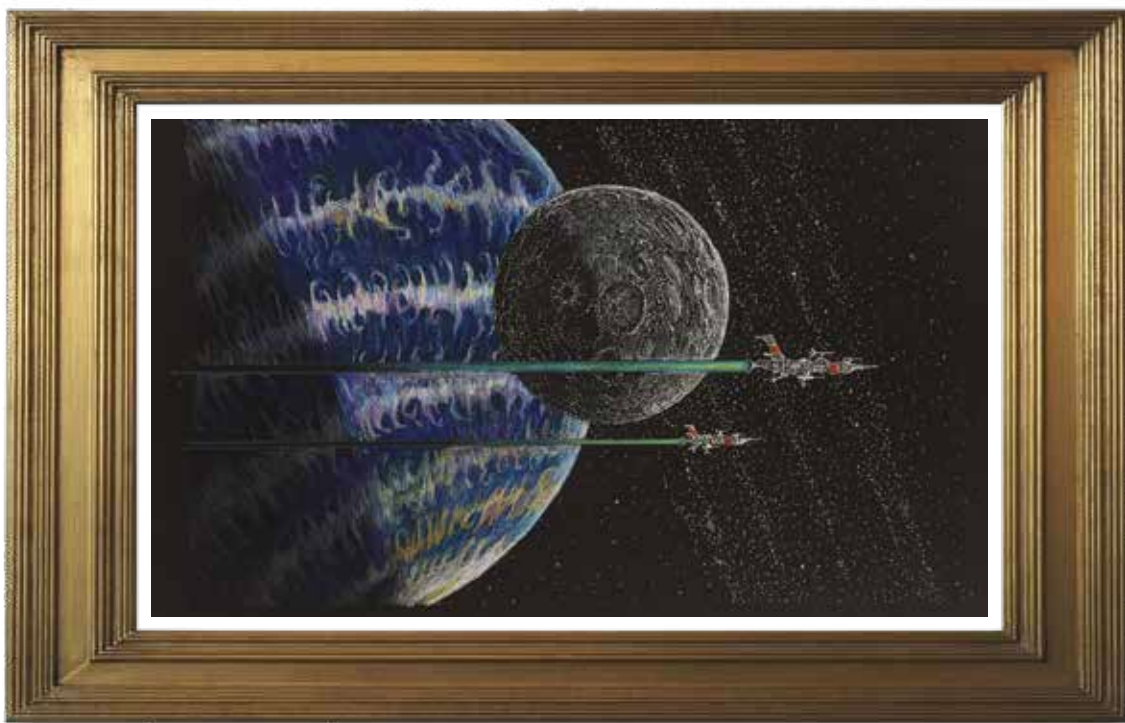

The group has selected a new project for the upcoming months. We will be making items for the VA Hospital, such as hats and shoulder wraps for the male patients. No timetable has been set for completion at this point. This will be coordinated with Anita Worthen, but we will have plenty of time. If any person who does not attend our meetings would like to contribute an item, they are welcome to do so. Just deliver them to the Arts & Crafts Room on any Tuesday morning between 10 and 11:30 am, which is our usual meeting time. ~ Dorothy Payne, dpayne001@dc.rr.com

MIXED MEDIA ARTS CLASS

The Mixed Media Arts Class has collectively made a 2020 calendar using images from within the Four Seasons community. You can purchase a calendar for $10 by emailing NormTheresaSchipske@gmail.com or by calling Rob Kelman, (951) 992-9156.

Art by Artist of the Month, John Baeyertz

This is the perspective of the artist of the month, John Baeyertz.

"My love of science fiction inspired me to create this drawing of two spaceships racing past a giant planet and its moon. This picture represents my efforts working in a medium new to me, colored pencils on black drawing paper. Our instructor, Rob Kelman, challenges us to try new techniques.

"The challenge for drawing was learning to reverse my thinking about what is black and what is color.

"Rob also guides us to concentrate on seeing before you draw. He says, 'If you can't see it you can't draw it!' However, if your theme is space and the future, it's not easy to just pull up a photo to use. You must see within your mind. It is a unique process. Then again, I must confess I did look at more than one NASA photo before starting my drawing. None were exactly like this drawing, but each had something I needed.

"You will always find a welcoming atmosphere at the Mixed Media Art Class. If you have ever been inspired to draw, paint, pen & ink, etc. I highly recommend this class. It doesn't matter your skill level, you will be welcomed and might be surprised by your hidden artistic skills."

Classes are Mondays, 10 am to 12 noon, and/or Wednesdays, 6 to 8 pm. Classes are FREE to our residents. If you have any questions, call Rob Kelman at (951) 992-9156. ~ Rob Kelman

The shuffleboard group is enjoying the fall weather

SHUFFLEBOARD

We have now started playing with our fall/winter hours and more people are coming out to play because of the later starting time. Also, thanks to Saphire and the maintenance crew, the cracks have now been ground down flat. This enables our play to be more enjoyable and our shots more accurate, making for a better game. So come on out and join one of the fastest growing groups of Four Seasons residents in a competitive game that is easy to learn and is played in a friendly, relaxed atmosphere. We are always looking for new people to come and join our fun group. If it has been a long time since you have played or perhaps never, give it a chance. As it is a very easy game to learn and is not physically demanding. You can even get to be an skilled player very quickly, while having a few laughs. After having your morning coffee and breakfast, join us on Saturday and Monday mornings at 9 am for some fresh air and light exercise, or have breakfast at the Kopper Kettle Bistro after playing. Each time we play, we choose different teams, so you are always playing with different partners. We get to socialize with friends and meet other residents during our morning play.

Did you know that around 1913, a small group of winter tourists in Daytona Beach, Florida, conceived the idea of building shuffleboard courts on land? Until that time, shuffleboard was exclusively a shipboard game and grew slowly until the end of the 1930s. ~ Marty Rotman, mrtmj@aol.com

CLASSIC FILM GROUP

We are continuing with famous directors' signature movies on Tuesday, Nov. 12 at 6 pm in The Lodge Theater. Come join us on the second Tuesday night of each month for an adventure into various film genres with renowned directors.

We will explore Spielberg, Tarantino, Scorsese, Ron Howard, Hitchcock, Eastwood, John Ford, Orson Welles, Kubrick, and more.

We will be having an open discussion afterward about the movie. Check the movies schedule for the upcoming movie or email me at 4seasonsmoviegroup@gmail.com for upcoming directors and movies.

We will be changing directors and genres to a reality, adventure, drama, and history featuring, APOLLO 13. This movie is a docudrama based on a true story and directed by Ron Howard.

Here is a synopsis: "NASA must devise a strategy to return Apollo 13 to Earth safely after the spacecraft undergoes massive internal damage, putting the lives of the three astronauts on board in jeopardy.

"Resembling something like a John Ford film set in space, Apollo 13 delivers a stirring portrait of heroism through its expert retelling of the failed 1970 Apollo 13 lunar mission. Ron Howard delivers both superlative white-knuckle excitement and inspirational drama with this historical thriller, in which Tom Hanks plays astronaut Jim Lowell. Lowell is tasked with getting himself, his craft, and his crew back to Earth in one piece after their trip to the moon goes awry.

"Evoking both the wonder and horror of interplanetary travel, as well as the courage and sacrifice required to embark upon such journeys, Apollo 13 has a realism that extends from its rocket-related science to its three-dimensional characterizations.

"It's an ode to American daring and resourcefulness that stands as one of the decade's most purely rousing hits." ~ Paul Plamondon

CARS & COFFEE

Our October Cars and Coffee gathering was great! We had fantastic weather and the community garage sale did not deter the hardcore car nuts from getting together. Joe Spinella and his sharp looking 2002 Pewter Corvette (top photo, left) were present. Joe has owned his Vett for 10 years. Joe and his wife Joyce have lived in Four Seasons for two years.

Trini Velasquez Brought his beautiful 2017 Flame Red 4 x 4 Dodge Ram Truck (center photo, right). It is powered by a powerful 6-cylinder diesel engine and 8-speed automatic transmission. Trini, who is a Vietnam Veteran, and his wife Virginia, have lived in Four Seasons for three years.

If any one present was falling asleep, Tim Hall woke them up with his absolutely great sounding 1974 Dodge Dart (bottom photo, right). Tim trailered it to The Lodge parking lot and fired that baby up. This was music to any car guy's or gal's ears. The car is not street legal but Tim races it at the drag strip. Tim and his wife have lived at Four Seasons for 10 years.

Please keep this date open: Four Seasons at Beaumont will present our inaugural Car, Motorcycle and 4 x 4 Car Show on Saturday, Nov. 9 from 10 am to 2 pm. If you would like to enter your car, truck, motorcycle, or 4 x 4, pick up an entry form from The Lodge front desk or contact Rick Morales at (951) 797-3732 or Frank Morales at (951) 203-4578. Or if you just want to view some great looking cars, please stop buy and vote for your favorite car, motorcycle or 4 x 4. ~ Frank Morales

TOPS

HOW CAN WE KNOW THE TRUTH?

People in China drink very little red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than we do.

Many Japanese people eat very little fat and suffer fewer heart attacks than we do.

People in Mexico, generally, eat a lot of fat and suffer fewer heart attacks than we do.

Italians drink excessive amounts of red wine and suffer fewer heart attacks than we do.

Germans often drink beer, eat lots of sausages and fats and suffer fewer heart attacks than we do.

Conclusion: You may eat and drink what you like.

It's speaking English that apparently is what kills you.

During our lifetime we have seen many research articles by reputable groups that target American eating habits. Remember when eggs were really bad, and gave people very high cholesterol readings of bad LDL, cholesterol? Now it is generally believed that in moderation, eggs are okay again, and contain many good things including a mega-dose of protein.

Coffee, red wine, and red meat have also been targeted in the past, but new research seems to indicate that these do have therapeutic properties when consumed correctly.

One of the latest crazes is CBD oil. It has run the gamut of not okay to being beneficial for many people. It seems that calls for federal regulation of the industry will soon iron out the questions about this new product.

Even water has come under attack lately. Should you drink eight to 10 glasses of water a day? What kind of liquid is best for proper hydrating? The latest research seems to accept many liquids previously forbidden. These may be good replacements if they contain small amounts of sugar, electrolytes or protein. So, your tea and coffee now count as water. It has to do with absorption in the stomach. Food of some sort slows the digestion, and more water is absorbed by the body, rather than water just rushing through our bodies on an empty stomach.

In addition, muscle weight being heavier than fat weight has also been noted to slow weight losses causing some people to exercise less. Also, iron and calcium have been scrutinized as to their effects on the body.

At our TOPS meetings we bring in articles and experts to educate us on many of these topics. We discuss each one, and do not come to any group conclusion, or advocate any one idea or food.

Why not join us and make a healthy difference in your life today? We meet in The Lodge Ballroom on Tuesdays, 8 am. ~ Andrea Henderson, (918) 497-6491

Wondering what bottle of great wine to take to that special holiday party?

Let your Taste d'Vine Wine Club help you with those holiday gift ideas! We will be tasting some special wines that would make the perfect gift. Anita Worthen and Ray Geiser will be presenting – so come join us and check off a few of those needed gifts!

Please join us at our meeting on Nov. 21 (the third Thursday of the month) in the Ballroom. Doors open at 5:15 pm, with the meeting starting at 6 pm. Please

4X4 SEASONS

If you look at night to the South from Four Seasons you will see a flashing light on a distant hill. Twelve members of the 4x4 Seasons off road group set out to find those towers on Sept. 5. After five hours of hillside trails... Eureka! There they were, the towers rose majestically above a desolate hilltop. It was a long but fun drive which ended with an open gate at Lambs Canyon.

Come and join us if you own a 4x4 or would like to ride along with one of our members. We meet in the Arts & Crafts Room on the first Tuesday of each month at 6 pm to plan the upcoming trip on Thursday, two days later. Any questions can be answered by Rick Brower at (951) 255-7119 or Don Fant at (951) 381-1972. ~ Don Fant

ALL SEASONS RV

In September, we traveled to Mesa Verde, CO. The group enjoyed visiting Mesa Verde National Park. We spent a couple of days exploring the cliff dwellings which date between 600 AD and 1300 AD. Archeologists suspect a 23-year drought caused the people to leave the area in the late 1200s. Considering the age of these communities, they are in very good condition.

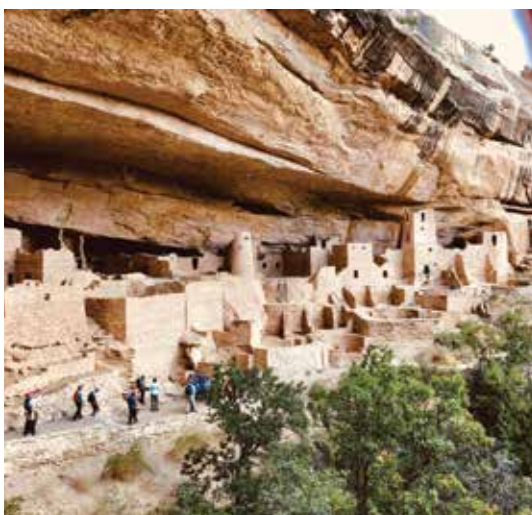

We also spent the day at Silverton, an old mining town. This was a railroad hub for the silver mines and the surrounding area. You can still take the original steam engine from Durango to Silverton. There is an historical museum that is worth a visit. The day was spent shopping and eating.

Our upcoming November trip is Pechanga. December is our annual Christmas party.

Guests are welcome to participate in our camp outs. Our monthly meetings are at The Lodge in the RCN on the fourth Tuesday of the month at 6:30 pm. If you would like more information, please contact Bob Cooper at (951) 769-6352, or Larry Zimmerman at (909) 553-2798. ~ Bob Cooper

MOTORCYCLE CLUB

We recently returned from our long awaited week-long Sierra Pass ride and what a ride it was!

Making the trip was Bob Howard, Scott Snyder, Bill Steele, Paul Bricker, Joe Bert, Terry Humble plus guest and yours truly, Jim Ayala. Once again, we have Bob Howard to thank for planning the route and each day's itinerary. When Bob plans a route, you can be assured that major highways will be avoided in favor of less traveled scenic routes. For example, our destination for day one was Pismo Beach and we got there via Palmdale and then country roads basically all the way to Pismo.

Our destination for day two was Aptos, north of Carmel. The highlight of the day was getting to Hwy 1, south of Big Sur, by riding over the Santa Lucia Mountain Range via the little known Nacimiento Fergusson Road. This is the only road over the mountain range and, by motorcycle, it was a blast!

On day three we made our way over the Golden Gate Bridge and then north east to Grass Valley, which is about 70 miles northeast of Sacramento. We were now ready for some fun twisty mountain roads through the Sierras.

Day four took us to beautiful Lake Tahoe where we stopped for lunch and then it was on to Sonora. While the day's ride was amazingly beautiful, we were looking forward to day five and what may have been the highlight of the trip.

The destination for day five was Oakhurst, which is south of Yosemite. However, we got there by riding over the Sonora Pass and the Tioga Pass and finally riding through the Yosemite Valley. What a day!

On day six we hit the road for Kernville. Again, another day of beautiful sights.

On day seven we hit the road for home, well before sunrise. We normally don't ride past sunset or before sunrise but after a full week of riding, we were a little saddle sore and anxious to get home. Everyone got back home safe and sound by late morning.

Looking back on the trip, everyone agreed that Bob planned some spectacular routes, which made every day so enjoyable. However, a few additional items factored into making the trip so special. First, the weather was nearly perfect. Not too cold on some days and never unbearably hot on others. Second, we were amazed at the nearly perfect road surfaces just about every day of the trip. Nice to see our state road taxes at work. And third, the camaraderie. Traveling with a group of riders who genuinely enjoy each other's company is really special. Lunch and dinner conversations were never dull and lounging in the hotel pool at the end of each day recounting the day's ride was the perfect ending to the day.

So glad I'm a member of the Four Seasons Motorcycle Club! ~ Jim Ayala, jimrayala95@gmail.com

HORSESHOE CLUB

November, Thanksgiving, Whoa Nellie. Don't know where the year went, but we've been enjoying every week of it in the Horseshoe Club. The pits were rebuilt this summer; however, we are still working to get the pit material to a proper consistency. We're looking forward to our Fourth Quarterly Tournament this month and crowning our final winners of 2019. Our September quarterly social with dinner at the new Kopper Kettle and dessert at a member's home was hosted by Bob and Sue Cooper. Among several very delicious offerings was

Bob's famous Peanut Butter Fudge. Wow, I love being his neighbor. With all this going on, we do play horseshoes every Wednesday at 8 am, with seemingly a different overall winner each week, depending on who's hot that week and that's what makes it fun. So come out and join us, we have official but relaxed rules which makes it possible for all to play and be competitive. PICKLEBALL

This past month has been an exciting one for our Pickleball group. As our club continues to grow and spread our wings by participating in tournaments taking place outside the gates of Four Seasons Beaumont we continue to do well. On Sept. 22 at the OLDlympics in Hemet, we had 14 people participate and compete in the Pickleball games, delineated by age group. Each person played four rounds, each time with a different partner. When the competition was over the following results were achieved:

GOLD MEDALISTS: Lori Crosse, Tracey Laykoff, Jules Stayner

SILVER MEDALISTS: Jesse Aceves, "Pickleball Nancy" Barnaby, Irma Peterson

BRONZE MEDALISTS: Jeromee Liebenberg, Richard Carrasco

But the fun wasn't all happening on the courts! Coming along to cheer us all on were Renee Brickman and Jan Buschmann who brought along a sumptuous picnic and a pop-up canopy under which everyone could escape the heat. Following the competition, the players celebrated with lunch at Polly's Pies.

The rescheduled Inland Empire Senior Games were held in San Bernardino on Sept. 28, and Four Seasons Beaumont was also well-represented in this competition. Had the games taken place as originally scheduled on Sept. 21, the pickleball group from Four Seasons Beaumont would have been a much larger contingent. But the competitors made their presence known and many medals were awarded. Among those bringing home medals were: Jesse Aceves, Al "Fettucini" Blair, David Burchartz, Tracey Laykoff, Keith Linton, Lou Luna, Yundell Montalbo-Linton, Karen Rose, Joanne Sepulveda.

The best way to improve your court presence and skill level is to enter tournaments. You will meet new competitors from different areas whose game you are unfamiliar with. By challenging yourself in tournament play you become much more comfortable in a competitive environment and improve your own game. So here's to our competitive friends from Four Seasons.

For more information on upcoming events and tournaments, check the glass case by the courts, and keep on pickling! ~ Julie Stayner, juliestayner@gmail.com

PADDLE TENNIS

Last month we featured our oldest player and this month our youngest player who is Mrs. Carrasco or better known as "Shao." She was born in 1964 which makes her the baby of the group. She started playing in 2014 and was introduced to the game by her husband Richard just before they tied the knot that year. Besides being the youngest, she is also the most expressive, as you can hear her yelling when she is playing at the courts. As she is still working she is at the court whenever she is off from work. Most ladies are intimidated by the aggressive play but not Shao, as she is one tough cookie and up to the challenge. She enjoys the camaraderie with the players developed over the last few years.

Her advice to interested players is come out and try it... you may like the game.

TENNIS CLUB

We've got a big, new event coming up soon – The Autumn Aces Doubles Tournament will be played on Saturday, Nov. 9. We used the term “Autumn,” because it allows for better alliteration and out here at the home, we try to avoid using the word “Fall,” which is sometimes followed by “and I can’t get up.” The registration deadline for players is Oct. 31, so your receipt of the Breeze may have caused you to miss that opportunity. There is still time, however, to sign up for the lunch portion of the event. Tennis Club members can enjoy the lunch for free, and guests/non-members may participate for $5. With the lunch being prepared by our awesome new Kopper Kettle Bistro staff, you won’t want to miss it. Register as soon as possible at <http://bit.ly/FallTournament>. Come on out and watch the matches and the games, including Ace the Turkey, Corn Hole Toss, and Pot of Aces, because pot is legal now.

As I am a fan of Nick Kyrgios, the professional tennis player, who was just found to have “committed a major offense,” I want to model my old-guy amateur game after him. I am trying to improve my offense by working on a two-handed backhand to increase power and to improve my serve by making better tosses. As a student of Kyrgios’s game, I wondered about some of the basic tennis etiquette practices, so guess what – there are some answers on that Internet thing. A few years ago I found a site that talked about ball management. The site said that many players slow the game down by failing to collect balls and get them to the server efficiently. Tips to speed that up included: if the server needs a ball, the player closest to a ball should get it for the server and send the ball to the server so that it can be caught easily in one hand. Ideally, the ball should be provided with one bounce or two bounces, softly, to the server. Hitting the ball back hard toward the server’s side, where it could hit a player or rebound off of the fence, is considered rude, as is making the server pick a ball up off ground, when it could have been bounced to him/her. Or if you’re losing, just smack the ball over the fence and bounce it on the putting green.

Club-arranged Wednesday night matches will resume in May. Visit our website: <https://sites.google/view/tennis-fourseasons/home>. ~ Steven Hovey, sahovey47@hotmail.com

DOMINOES

On Sept. 11, the domino playoffs for the personalized trophy started. A lot of players got eliminated in the first round, myself included. The playoffs ended on Sept. 13, with Vernon Bell winning the quarterly trophy, defeating Robert Steen in the final round. Vernon is lucky and slick like a fresh jar of Skippy Peanut Butter. Congratulations to Vernon Bell on his big win. In December, the domino playoffs for the personalized trophy will take place again.

Vernon Bell and Solomon "Beaufort" Hayes both were the domino champions for September. They tied at 16 games each. I told you Vernon was lucky! Congrats to both players for a job well done.

Solomon Hayes and his wife, Thelma, have been residents at Four Seasons Beaumont for 14 years. They will be moving to Atlanta on Oct. 15 and become Falcons. They will both be missed by all here at the Domino Group. We wish them nothing but the best on their new journey. I will miss Solomon's singing, mumbling or whatever he does while he is playing dominoes.

Dominoes are played Wednesdays and Fridays from 5 to 9 pm in The Lodge Game Room. Practice is 5 to 6 pm on both days. Come on out and join us... have some fun and make some new friends. Jesse Dimmer is usually available to give you help and tips on the game of dominoes if needed. For more information, call Jesse at (951) 769-2035 or Reggie at (951) 769-6483. ~ Marvin Gaines

THREE THIRTEEN

Three Thirteen is an easy game to learn and even easier to play. We've had new players join us at the tables the past few months and it's fun to see their names listed as low scorers at their tables. Amongst the "newbies" with low scores are Sue Barker with 53, Marianne Bugni with 59, and Grace Germany with 73.

And then there are the "oldies but goodies" still racking up the win column: Caryn McSweeney with a low of 37; followed by Marty Rotman at 69; Barbara Dipoma pulling in a 73; and Andy Lunetta and Jerry Monahan tying at 77.

Three Thirteen is an easy and fast-paced Rummy spin-off. The game is played in 11 rounds and players meld, using sets and runs.

The player to lay all cards down first receives no points. The remaining players then lay down their cards, either on the first player's cards or their own. Each round uses a progressive wild card, from 3s to Kings. The lowest score wins. Remembering what wild card is in play for a particular round is the most difficult part of the game.

Everyone is welcome and we always have a learner's table, if needed. We play at The Lodge Game Room from 3 to 5 pm on Nov. 5 and 19 (the first and third Tuesdays of the month). If you have questions or want to receive email reminders, contact Mike at micedcor1@gmail.com. ~ Mike Corbett

DUPLICATE BRIDGE FOR FUN

The Duplicate Bridge for Fun group meetings are scheduled for the fourth Tuesday of the month. Thanksgiving Day occurs on the fourth Thursday of November. Many players will want to spend the week with their families; so, there will be no formal meeting.

As always, send me an email if you're interested in discussion of duplicate bridge activity or would like to learn to improve your game.

~ Kirk Freyermuth, kafreyer@frontier.com

BRIDGE FOR FUN

It's hard to believe how fast each year goes by... amazingly, it is already fall! If you are thinking about a new activity, consider playing bridge. As the only organized rubber bridge group in Four Seasons, we always have four tables and sometimes five. We welcomed some new homeowners this past month who were looking for a fun group to spend an afternoon playing cards. We have so many regulars that we have to ask new players to be substitutes until we have an opening. We have all levels of players from beginner to intermediate. So please don't feel hesitant about joining our group or even just coming to watch and see if bridge is for you. We are a friendly group that meets in the Game Room every Wednesday at noon. For more information, contact Verina Rector at (951) 769-1687. ~ Tom Halley

CANASTA

Join us for an afternoon of friendship and fun while playing a game of Hand and Foot Canasta. We meet Thursdays in the RCN Lobby from 12:45 to 4 pm. Table assignments are distributed at 12:45 pm. Each week you may play with someone different, giving you an opportunity to meet new friends and/or visit with old friends. We supply the cards, so just bring yourself and a desire to have fun. If you don't know how to play, we are always happy to set up a teaching table — by the end of the afternoon you will have mastered the game. Come join us.

PINOCHLE FOR FUN

Join us! Whether you are a seasoned player or new to the game, we welcome you. Pinochle is an exciting card game where you bid and bluff to name trump and take control of the game. This stimulating game is a time-honored favorite. Winning is not just the luck of the draw; it is a thinking game which teases the mind and keeps it sharp. We meet in the RCN Building, Activity Room #1, on Mondays and Wednesdays from 9:30 am to noon. Our Chair is Karen Farmer. ~ Karen Farmer

UPTOWN DIVAS BID WHIST

Uptown Divas Bid Whist Group meets on the first and third Friday every month from 2 to 4 pm in the Game Room. ~ Deborah Garner, kenyakiki@aol.com

HEARTS

All are welcome. The game is played with a single card deck, no jokers, and 52 cards. We play three, four, or five at a table. No scheduling necessary. We play on Tuesdays at 6 pm in the Game Room next to the Library. A group has played here at Four Seasons for nine years. Seating is random draw, no partners, individual scores. It is easy to learn, harder to win. Players will teach. Games last approximately two hours. Lowest points win. If you have questions, call Mike Saperstein (951) 769-7909. ~ Mike Saperstein

RUMMIKUB

Join us Sundays from 2 to 4 pm. Please try to show up by 1:45 pm as we always welcome help setting up. Have fun with new friends and old friends. Rummikub is played at a table with tiles and a holder for each player's tiles. Players begin with 14 tiles. A player's first move is a group of at least three tiles totaling 30 points. If unable to play, tiles are drawn from the remaining Rummikub tiles. Play ends when one person uses all their tiles. Remaining players then add the total numbers of their tiles for a score. Zero is the best score.

If you like Rummy and Mah Jongg, then you would certainly like Rummikub. We play in The Lodge Game Room. We also will set up a learning table for newcomers. Hope to see you there. If you have any questions, call Mike Saperstein, (951) 769-7909. ~ Mike Saperstein

PAN

We are looking for players, substitute players, and people who are interested in learning the game. I am happy to teach anyone who wishes to learn the game, either individually or in a small group, your home or mine. Pan is a card game, much on the order of gin in some respects, and played with up to eight people at a table. It is played by both men and women, so all are very welcome. The game can be played in the day, evening, in a room in The Lodge or in private homes. If you are interested, please call Linda Mendelson, at (951) 941-9100, or email Goldtoy@earthlink.net, and I will answer any questions you may have. As are all card games, it is played with both skill and luck. ~ Linda Mendelson

CO-ED BID WHIST

Hey everyone! Come out sometime and join us to learn bid whist and/or "to get your bid game on." We meet on Mondays (except major holidays) from 6 to 8:30 pm in the RCN Building, Room #3. We offer a satisfying game environment filled with good cheer, good natured "trash talking," and some great music. And, win or lose... you will have a lot of fun and meet some great folks while playing bid whist. New players, whether new to the game or veterans, are always welcome. For more information, contact Roxanne Williams at (951) 797-3123 or Floyd Reid at (951) 317-3127. ~ Roxanne Williams

Jeanie used the paddle to protect her face from the powerful shot. Instead the ball bounced off her paddle, dropped on the other side of the table, caught Mitch by surprise and she won the point.

PING PONG

The Official Rules of Playing the Game of Ping Pong

The aim of the game is simple: Hit the ball over the net onto your opponent's side. A point is won by you if your opponent is unable to return the ball to your side of the table (i.e. they miss the ball, they hit the ball but it misses your side of the table, or the ball hits the net), or if they hit the ball before it bounces on their side of the table. If the ball hits the net and bounces on the other side of the table and your opponent doesn't get the ball over, it's good and you get the point. The edges of the table are part of the legal table surface, but not the sides.

A match is played best three out of five games (or 4/7 or 5/9). The winner of a game is the first to get 11 points. There must be a gap of at least two points between opponents at the end of the game, so if the score is 10-10 (deuce) the game goes to an extra play until one of the players who serves wins the point which is called 'add-in'. Either 'add-in' player who scores the next point declares a win. After each game the players switch sides of the table. In the final game (i.e. 3rd game), the players switch sides again after either player reaches 5 points.

A legal serve is when the ball must rest on an open hand palm. Then it must be tossed up at least 6 inches and struck so the ball first bounces on the server's side and then the opponent's side. The ball must pass cleanly over the net - if it 'clips' the net and goes over, it is called a 'let' and the serve is retaken. Let serves are not scored and are played over. If you hit the ball into the net and doesn't go over, the point goes to the other play team.

The above are the official rules, but come and join our wonderful group of players, and you will see that the Four Seasons TT players like to improvise and have fun, fitness, and friendship. If you have any questions about the Ping Pong Group, you can email Mitch Harmon at mitchellharmon65@gmail.com. ~ Mitch Harmon

BILLIARDS FOR FUN

Finally, all the members' vacations are completed, and they have come back to us! We have such a fun time, with such great people, who enthusiastically support us by attending and making the games so much fun. Thank you to all of our wonderful members! (Check out the photos above of some of our accomplished and fun players!

On Nov. 12, we will hold our final in-house tournament of 2019. (Wow, has this year sped by!) Even in competition, we always have so much fun, amidst laughter and banter ~ up until the final game to determine the winners, of course. Then the room is so quiet you could hear a pin drop on the carpet. Concentration levels are high, intensity is palpable, and seriousness is the modus operandi. After the winners are declared, everyone congratulates them, and marvels at their developed expertise. Well, kinda. We do have some awfully accomplished players, and they get better and better week after week. They deserve the accolades, as well as their names engraved on the perpetual plaque in honor of their wins.

If you are interested in learning the game of billiards, or you need to dust off your own cue stick to come play with us, formal play is every Tuesday at either 11 am or 1 pm in The Lodge Billiards Room. We have a lot of fun, and invite you to come see for yourself. We also have a Saturday practice time open to the community on Saturdays in the same time formats. C'mon, check us out; you know you want to! ~ Eileen Gilbert-Antoine, egcellent@msn.com

WILD BUNCH BILLIARDS

The Wild Bunch 8-Ball Billiards Group is geared for those individuals who want to play competitively with those of their skill level. We started the new year with inviting the "best of the best" from Sun Lakes and Solera to play competition on Fridays, from 12:30 to 3:30 pm in our Billiards Room. It has been a great success with the skill levels ranging from Level 4 to Level 7.

If you want to play serious, competitive pool, we invite you to come by the Billiards Room and join in the stimulation of competitive play. We do not play with partners; we play one-on-one with an opponent of your skill level. We are always looking for those who want to play competitively and, who knows, you just may want to change up your game and play on the team!

And, most importantly, we have a good time. ~ Gracy Luna, gracyluna@aol.com

THE 8-BALL CLUB

The 8-Ball Club holds two in-house tournaments each month. An 8-Ball tournament and a 9-Ball tournament. Most months we play four additional tournaments. Two away and two at home with Hemet (Solera) twice and Cherry Valley (Solera) twice. This month Hemet could not make either tournament but there is always next month.

In the September in-house 8-ball tournament we had 12 players competing. When it got near the end, we found Joe Rovere and Larry Rice in the winners' circle and Robert Howard in the loser bracket as the final three players' still standing. Larry sent Joe to meet Robert in the loser bracket. Robert won to move on to meet Larry in the final. Robert looked like he was going to repeat his last month win but Larry was able to finish out the last rack to become this month's 8-Ball champion. Congratulations to Larry Rice, this month's 8-Ball champion and Robert Howard, runner up. This month, also saw 11 players compete in the in-house 9-Ball tournament. Rocket Spinoso and Robert Howard met up twice. Each time, Robert came away with a win to become this month's 9-Ball Champion. Congratulations to Robert Howard, this month's 9-Ball champion, and Rocket Spinoso, runner up.

The 8-Ball Club is always looking for new Four Season residents who like to play pool to join us. The club plays or practices Monday, Wednesday and Friday nights from 6:30 to 9 pm. There is a calendar of our events in the Billiards Room on the 8-Ball Club bulletin board. Come on out for the fun and give us a try.

FISHING CLUB

The fun fishing five

The trout season is finally upon us. November starts the stocking of trout in our local lakes. The picture in this article was taken a couple of years ago at Yucaipa Regional Park. We were trying to catch trout and wound up catching a few little fish that we were not sure what they were. I believe they may have been baby bass.

The weather is now perfect to go out and catch a few fish to put in the frying pan. I call around to the different lakes to see when they are going to stock the trout. I have found that after a stocking you have a real good chance of catching fish. If the lake has fish in it then you have a real good chance to bring home a fish for dinner.

I always ask the people who run the operations at the lake what the fish are biting on and where to go on the lake to have the best chance to catch some fish. I usually fish from the shore and do pretty good. Boat fishing can be very productive, however some lakes do not allow you to use a boat. Always call or google for information on the lake you are going to be fishing. I try to avoid being surprised by what is going on at the lake.

I wanted to go tuna fishing this year and found out that I could not afford the trip. It would have cost me $450 for one day of ocean fishing. My wife told me to go and buy a can of tuna and that would be just fine. Obviously she does not understand the concept of catching your own fish. She does understand how expensive it is to go fishing.

My wife does not like to go fishing any more. One of my fishing friends told her that fish have feelings. She does not want to hurt the fish. What I don't understand is that she sure loves to eat fish. I guess she thinks that the fish she eats are put to sleep before they arrive at the market. I have been married six years and I still can't figure out her logic on some matters.

Tight lines to all my fishing friends and remember to go fishing as much as possible. You might be the lucky one and catch a record fish.

BOCCE BALL

The word “bocce” comes from an Italian word meaning “to bowl.” The small white ball, called the “pallino,” is thrown first to start the game. The rules are simple —get your ball as close to the pallino as possible to score a point. If more balls of the same color get close, these additionally score points. Games are usually played to 12 points and two games usually take about one and a half hours.

The Bocce Ball group is going through some changes. As of October, I am the new President and Greg Stilson is the new Secretary. Thanks to Mike and Jeannine for their years of service to the group. With the fall weather, our hours are changing. The fall schedule is: Tuesdays, 9 am; Wednesdays, 3 pm; Fridays, 3 pm. Happy hour will follow play on Fridays.

Bocce Ball is held at the Bocce Ball courts at the beautiful Summit with views of the surrounding valley. Everyone is welcome. New players are introduced quickly to the rules and best strategies. It is an easy game where everyone can play requiring no specific skill or previous experience. Playing is a lot of fun, win, or lose with a group of wonderful people.

If you are interested in learning the game, please join us. Any questions please call me, Hank Negrete, at (909) 747-7087 or Greg Stilson at (951) 267-1551. ~ Hank Negrete, hanknegrete16@yahoo.com

- Send jpeg format photos to FourSeasonsNews@yahoo.com
- Include a brief description of the photo including the location
- If you have any questions, please call Courtney Taylor at (909) 797-3647

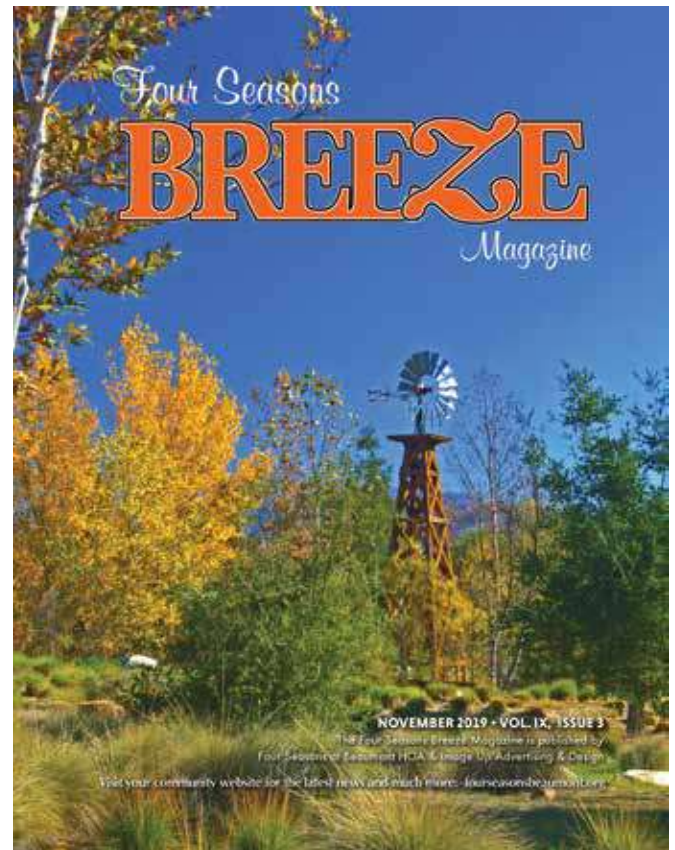

Submission Guidelines

The Breeze Communications Board requires all committees, clubs and groups to submit their article no later than 12 noon on the 8th of each month. Maximum article length is 400 words and maximum number of photos per club/group is three. Email Microsoft Word document (.doc), Rich Text Format (.rtf) or simply include your article in the body of an email message to FourSeasonsNews@yahoo.com. Articles submitted as PDFs or in hard copy will not be accepted.

Please include committee, club, or group name, writer's contact information, and organization's contact information. Within the article, include upcoming event details and general contact information. Photographs (maximum three) must be clear, in focus, and submitted as high-resolution jpegs with captions including the first and last name of everyone in the photo. Photos and articles will be printed at the discretion of the Breeze Communications Board.
